NOTES

1. An application must be made within the period specified in the notice of the event published by the Minister for Fisheries.
2. Within 30 days after receiving this application, the Minister for Fisheries may advise you in writing as to whether or not the Minister considers that you are entitled to compensation under the Act. If the Minister considers that you are entitled to compensation, the Minister must conduct negotiations with you with a view to settling the amount of the compensation. If you and the Minister agree on the amount of compensation, the Minister must enter into an agreement with you setting out the terms of the agreement.

If an agreement on the amount of compensation has not been entered into within 60 days of advice to you that the Minister considers that you are entitled to compensation, you or the Minister may apply to the Fisheries Adjustment Compensation Tribunal for a determination of the amount of compensation. An agreement as to the amount of compensation may be entered into even though an application has been made to the Tribunal.

If the Minister advises you that he or she does not consider that you are entitled to compensation, you may apply to the Tribunal to —

- (a) determine whether or not you are entitled to compensation; and
- (b) if you are entitled to compensation, the amount of the compensation payable to you.

An application to the Tribunal cannot be made later than 21 days after the day on which the advice is received from the Minister.

If you do not receive advice from the Minister, within 30 days of the Minister receiving the application, that you are entitled to compensation, you may apply to the Tribunal to —

- (a) determine whether or not you are entitled to compensation; and
- (b) if you are entitled to compensation, the amount of the compensation payable to you.

An application to the Tribunal cannot be made later than 21 days after the expiration of the period within which the Minister is to advise you whether or not he or she considers that you are entitled to compensation.

An agreement as to the amount of compensation may be entered into even though an application has been made to the Tribunal.

3. The types of authorization in respect of which an application for compensation may be made by you are —
 - (a) an aquaculture lease;
 - (b) an aquaculture licence;
 - (c) a commercial fishing licence;

- (d) a fishing boat licence;
 - (e) a fish processor's licence;
 - (f) a managed fishery licence;
 - (g) an interim managed fishery permit;
 - (h) a farm lease;
 - (i) a hatchery licence;
 - (j) a hatchery permit;
 - (k) a pearling licence; or
 - (l) a pearling permit.
4. A claim by you for an entitlement to compensation under the Act can be based on the following events —
- (a) the coming into operation of section 10 of the Acts Amendment (Marine Reserves) Act 1997;
 - (b) the coming into operation of an order under section 13 (1) of the Conservation and Land Management Act 1984 constituting or adding to a marine nature reserve or marine park;
 - (c) the coming into operation under Division 1 of Part V of the Conservation and Land Management Act 1984 of —
 - (i) an amendment to a management plan; or
 - (ii) a substituted management plan,so that the renewal of an authorization would no longer be consistent with a management plan;
 - (d) the classification of an area of a marine park by notice under section 62 of the Conservation and Land Management Act 1984 as —
 - (i) a sanctuary area;
 - (ii) a recreation area; or
 - (iii) a special purpose area which, or that part of a special purpose area which, the Minister for the Environment has declared in the notice to be an area where a commercial activity specified in the notice would be incompatible with a conservation purpose specified in the notice.
5. You are entitled to fair compensation for any loss suffered as a result of the event on which the claim for compensation is based.

By Command of the deputy of the Governor,
M. C. WAUCHOPE, Clerk of the Executive Council.
