

EDUCATION

ED301

EDUCATION ACT 1928

EDUCATION AMENDMENT REGULATIONS 1992

Made by the Minister for Education.

Citation

1. These regulations may be cited as the Education Amendment Regulations 1992.

Principal regulations

2. In these regulations the *Education Act Regulations 1960 are referred to as the principal regulations.

[* Reprinted in the Gazette of 28 September 1989.
For amendments to 24 December 1991 see 1990 Index to Legislation of Western Australia, p. 226 and the Gazette of 25 October 1991.]

Regulation 4 amended

3. Regulation 4 of the principal regulations is amended by inserting in the correct alphabetical positions the following definitions —

“ “approved” means approved by the chief executive officer;

“four-year teaching qualification” means the successful completion of one or more courses comprising an aggregate of 4 years full-time study or part-time equivalent where —

(a) at least one year's study was in teacher education;

and

(b) each course was undertaken at a tertiary institution in Australia or an approved tertiary institution outside Australia;

“promotion” means movement from one position to another position that has a salary and conditions of employment that, when viewed as a whole, are, in the opinion of the Minister or the chief executive officer (whichever will effect the promotion), superior to those of the first position; ”.

Regulations 169 and 170 repealed and a regulation substituted

4. Regulations 169 and 170 of the principal regulations are repealed and the following regulation is substituted —

Eligibility of teacher for appointment by promotion

“ 169. (1) A teacher applying for appointment by promotion to a position in a primary school shall have —

(a) an approved four-year teaching qualification; and

(b) such other qualifications as may be specified by the Minister or the chief executive officer in the advertisement for the position.

(2) For the purposes of subregulation (1), the Teachers' Higher Certificate awarded by the Minister shall be deemed to be an approved four-year teaching qualification.

(3) Notwithstanding subregulation (1), a teacher who has an approved three-year teaching qualification, and such other qualifications as may be specified by the Minister or the chief executive officer in the advertisement for the position, may be appointed by promotion to a position in a primary school before 1 January 1994.

Regulation 185 repealed and a regulation substituted

5. Regulation 185 of the principal regulations is repealed and the following regulation is substituted —

Eligibility of teacher for appointment by promotion

“ 185. (1) A teacher applying for appointment by promotion to a position in a secondary school shall have —

- (a) an approved four-year teaching qualification; and
- (b) such other qualifications as may be specified by the Minister or the chief executive officer in the advertisement for the position.

(2) For the purposes of subregulation (1), the Teachers' Higher Certificate awarded by the Minister shall be deemed to be an approved four-year teaching qualification.

Regulation 193G inserted

6. After regulation 193F of the principal regulations the following regulation is inserted —

Eligibility of teacher for appointment by promotion

“ 193G. (1) A teacher applying for appointment by promotion to a position in a senior college shall have —

- (a) an approved four-year teaching qualification; and
- (b) such other qualifications as may be specified by the Minister or the chief executive officer in the advertisement for the position.

(2) For the purposes of subregulation (1), the Teachers' Higher Certificate awarded by the Minister shall be deemed to be an approved four-year teaching qualification.

Heading to Part XIA amended

7. The heading to Part XIA of the principal regulations is amended by deleting “BRANCH”.

Regulation 262D amended

8. Regulation 262D (1) of the principal regulations is amended by deleting “branch”.

Regulation 262E repealed
and a regulation substituted

9. Regulation 262E of the principal regulations is repealed and the following regulation is substituted —

Eligibility of teacher for appointment by promotion

“ 262E. (1) A teacher applying for appointment by promotion to a position in an education support school shall have —

- (a) an approved four-year teaching qualification; and
- (b) such other qualifications as may be specified by the Minister or the chief executive officer in the advertisement for the position.

(2) For the purposes of subregulation (1), the Teachers' Higher Certificate awarded by the Minister shall be deemed to be an approved four-year teaching qualification. ”

KAY HALLAHAN, Minister for Education.
