The Legal Costs Committee has complied with the notice provisions of section 278 of the Act.

Before making the Legal Profession (District Court Appeals) (Contentious Business) Determination 2018, the Legal Costs Committee—

- (a) reviewed all submissions received as a result of the notice given under section 278 of the Act;
- (b) considered the impact of changes in relevant Australian Bureau of Statistics data for the period.

PART 3—REPORT OF LEGAL COSTS COMMITTEE'S CONCLUSIONS*4. Maximum hourly and daily rates changed—scale of costs amended

- (a) The information gained as a result of the inquiries and submissions described in clause 3 satisfied the Legal Costs Committee that the manner in which legal services are provided made it appropriate to continue to adopt the hourly and daily rates charged by law practices as the basis for rates used in the Legal Profession (District Court Appeals) (Contentious Business) Determination 2018.
- (b) It is the recommendation of the Legal Costs Committee that—
  - (1) as a result of the inquiries and submissions described in clause 3;
  - (2) having considered the impact of relevant Australian Bureau of Statistics data;
  - (3) having considered submissions and data from The Law Society of Western Australia and the Western Australian Bar Association; and
  - (4) taking into account the incidental administrative implications of the calculation of the Goods and Services Tax, the hourly and daily rates referred to in sub-clause 4(a) be varied from the hourly and daily rates used in the Legal Practitioners (District Court Appeals) (Contentious Business) Determination 2016<sup>1</sup> as the basis for the recommended scale of costs. Those rates are set out in Table A of the Legal Profession (District Court Appeals) (Contentious Business) Determination 2018.

- (c) As a result of the information gained from the inquiries and submissions described in clause 3, it is the recommendation of the Legal Costs Committee that the scale of costs as set out in Table B of the Legal Profession (District Court Appeals) (Contentious Business) Determination 2018 be adopted for appeals in the District Court.

- (d) The recommendations of the Legal Costs Committee are not intended to override any entitlement of a law practice to make a written agreement as to costs with a client under the Act or any successor legislation.

- (a) The hourly and daily rates set out in Table A are the maximum hourly and daily rates, inclusive of GST, which the Legal Costs Committee determines shall be used to calculate the dollar amounts in the scale of costs set out in Table B.
- (b) The rates referred to in paragraph (a) were ascertained in the manner set out in clause 4 of the Legal Profession (District Court Appeals) (Contentious Business) Report 2018.
- (c) The daily rates set out in Table A are intended to cover all work done on a hearing or trial day, whether in or out of court, including preparation of written submissions and are not intended to be supplemented in any way by additional hourly charges given that the maximum number of hours allowed for the daily rate is 10 hours per day.

°	The reference to Restricted Practitioner, Junior Practitioner or Senior Practitioner in this Determination includes all legal practitioners even if the services were rendered in another State or Territory. Where a local practitioner has held an interstate practising certificate, the length of unrestricted legal practice in that other jurisdiction is to be counted in assessing that practitioner's years of practice for the purposes of this Determination.
#	The reference to Restricted Practitioner in this Determination includes practitioners undertaking restricted legal practice for the purposes of obtaining the required experience set out in section 50 of the Act and does not include a reference to an Australian legal practitioner who has a condition placed on their practising certificate by the Legal Practice Board, State Administrative Tribunal or otherwise, requiring them to practise under supervision for disciplinary, medical or other reasons.
##	The reference to Clerk/Paralegal in this Determination includes a law graduate prior to their admission to practise as an Australian lawyer.
*	The reference to Counsel in this Determination means a practitioner acting as barrister other than a Senior Counsel and includes a practitioner appearing in court who does not practise in accordance with Supreme Court Practice Direction 10.5.
	The reference to Senior Counsel in this Determination means a person within the meaning of item 11 or under item 12 of Regulation 5(2) of the Legal Profession Regulations 2009 (WA).

6. Counsel fees

- Appearances allowed for in item 2 are intended to be charged at the applicable counsel rate, and not at any higher rate that may be applicable to the actual practitioner by reason of the person undertaking the appearance otherwise being entitled to charge as a Senior Practitioner.
- Fees charged by practitioners who practise solely as barristers in accordance with Supreme Court Practice Direction 10.5 are only to be charged at the rates provided for counsel of their seniority in Table A and are not to be charged at rates applicable to a Senior Practitioner.
- The increase in Counsel rates, and no increase in Senior Counsel rates in Table A is designed to narrow the gap between those levels of seniority of counsel and more accurately reflect the market for legal services.
- Recovery of daily fees for counsel on the taxation or assessment of a Bill of Costs is intended to apply only when a full day has been worked, either in Court or in Court and in preparation for a subsequent hearing day.

7. Costs

Subject to the provisions of the Act permitting a law practice to make a written agreement as to costs with a client, the costs of or in relation to a party to an action or other proceeding (inclusive of GST and counsel fees, but exclusive of other disbursements)—

- recoverable by one party from another party; or
- payable by a party to that party's own law practice, shall not exceed the amounts set out in Table B.
