Gender Reassignment Regulations 2001

1. Citation

These regulations may be cited as the *Gender Reassignment Regulations 2001*¹.

2. Commencement

These regulations come into operation on the day on which the Gender Reassignment Act 2000 comes into operation¹.

3. Corresponding laws

The Sexual Reassignment Act 1988 of South Australia, as amended from time to time, is declared to be a corresponding law.

4. Applications for recognition certificates

- (1) An application for a recognition certificate is —
 - (a) to be in the form set out in Form 1 in Schedule 1, or Form 2 of that Schedule if the application relates to a child; and
 - (b) to be accompanied by —
 - (i) a fee of $40, unless subregulation (2) applies;
 - (ii) a statement signed by a medical practitioner that the applicant, or the child the application relates to, has undergone the reassignment procedure;

- (iii) any documents relating to where the reassignment procedure was carried out;
 - (iv) the original, or a certified copy of the birth certificate of the applicant, or the child the application relates to;
 - (v) the original, or certified copies, of any documents showing proof of residency and length of residency of the applicant, or the child the application relates to;
 - (vi) if the applicant so wishes, any relevant information regarding the adoption of the lifestyle of a person of the gender to which the applicant, or the child the application relates to, has been reassigned; and
 - (vii) a statement from any person who has provided counselling in relation to the gender identity of the applicant, or the child the application relates to, signed by that person.
- (2) If the Board considers that it is appropriate to do so in relation to a particular application, the Board may waive the fee referred to in subregulation (1)(b)(i).
- (3) The Board, or the executive officer referred to in section 11 of the Act, may, by written notice, require an applicant to give to the Board or the executive officer any additional information necessary for a proper consideration of the application.

5. Recognition certificate

A recognition certificate is to be in a form approved by the Board.

6. Fee to accompany application under section 17 for registration of a certificate

The fee to accompany an application under section 17(3) of the Act is $30.

7. Board to advise Registrar

The Board is to advise the Registrar referred to in section 5 of the Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 1998 in writing of a decision by the Supreme Court under section 19 or the State Administrative Tribunal on an application made under section 21 of the Act to cancel a recognition certificate.

[Regulation 7 amended: Gazette 30 Dec 2004 p. 7009.]

8. President has casting vote

If the votes cast on a question by the Board are equally divided, the president has a casting vote on the question.
