Part 3 — Classes of patients

11. Classes of patients

For the purpose of a service provided in respect of a patient by, in or at a hospital, the patient must be classified as —

- (a) an in-patient; or
- (b) a day patient, namely, a person who receives health services at a day hospital; or
- (c) an out-patient, namely, a person —
  - (i) who attends at a hospital and receives health services under an out-patient service provided at the hospital; or
  - (ii) in respect of whom a hospital provides a health service elsewhere than at the hospital;

or

- (d) a same day patient, namely, a person who is admitted to and discharged from a hospital, not being a day hospital, nursing home or a nursing post, between midnight on one day and midnight on the next succeeding day for the purpose of receiving health services.

12. Classes of in-patients

- (1) An in-patient must be classified under this clause for the purpose of the payment of the fees and charges set out in Schedule 1 in respect of an in-patient.
- (2) Subject to subclause (4), an in-patient must be classified as —
  - (a) a public in-patient, namely, an in-patient —
    - (i) who is an eligible person (not being a compensable in-patient, nursing home type patient or nursing home type private patient, or an in-patient who elects to be treated as a private in-patient); and

(ii) who elects to be treated as a public in-patient;
and

(iii) in respect of whom the hospital concerned provides, in a hospital bed, accommodation, maintenance, nursing care and appropriate professional services and such other necessary services as are available;

or

(b) a private in-patient, namely, an in-patient —

(i) who is an eligible person (not being a compensable in-patient, nursing home type patient or nursing home type private patient); and

(ii) who elects to be treated as a private in-patient;
and

(iii) in respect of whom the hospital concerned provides, in a hospital bed, accommodation, maintenance, nursing care and such other necessary services as are available, other than professional and dental services provided by a practitioner acting in a private capacity or midwifery services provided by a midwife acting in a private capacity;

or

(c) a compensable in-patient, namely, an in-patient who —

(i) has received or established the patient's right to receive in respect of any injury, illness or disease for which the patient is receiving health services payment by way of compensation or damages (including payment in settlement of a claim for compensation or damages) under the law that is or was in force in a State or internal Territory; or

(ii) on attendance at a hospital appears prima facie to have the right to receive any such payment in

cl. 12

respect of an injury, illness or disease for which the patient is receiving health services;

or

- (d) an eligible veteran in-patient, namely, an in-patient —
  - (i) who is a veteran; and
  - (ii) who elects to be treated under the DVA arrangement;

or

- (e) a nursing home type patient, namely, an in-patient (not being a compensable in-patient or an ineligible patient) —
  - (i) who is a nursing home type patient within the meaning of the Health Insurance Act 1973 (Commonwealth); and
  - (ii) in respect of whom the hospital concerned provides, in a hospital bed, accommodation and nursing care and appropriate professional services and such other necessary services as are available;

or

- (f) a nursing home type private patient, namely, an eligible person (not being a compensable in-patient) —
  - (i) who is a nursing home type patient within the meaning of the Health Insurance Act 1973 (Commonwealth); and
  - (ii) who elects to be treated as a nursing home type private patient; and
  - (iii) in respect of whom the hospital concerned provides, in a hospital bed, accommodation, nursing care and such other necessary services as are available, other than professional and dental services provided by a practitioner acting in a private capacity;

or

- (g) an ineligible in-patient, namely, an in-patient —
  - (i) who is not an eligible person (other than a person or a member of a class of persons to whom or to which a declaration made under the Health Insurance Act 1973 (Commonwealth) section 6(2) applies in the relevant circumstances); and
  - (ii) who is not a compensable in-patient; and
  - (iii) in respect of whom the hospital concerned provides, in a hospital bed, accommodation, nursing care and such other necessary services as are available, other than professional and dental services provided by a practitioner acting in a private capacity.
- (3) For the purposes of subclause (2)(c), a compensable in-patient includes a person in respect of the payment for whose health services one or more of the following applies or appears prima facie to apply —

- (4) At the time of admission to a hospital, or as soon as practicable after admission, an eligible person (not being a compensable in-patient or a veteran) must elect whether that person wishes to be classified as —
  - (a) a public in-patient; or
  - (b) a private in-patient.

---

- (5) At the time of admission to a hospital, or as soon as practicable after admission, a veteran must elect whether the veteran wishes to be classified as —
- (a) an eligible veteran in-patient; or
  - (b) a public in-patient; or
  - (c) a private in-patient.

[Clause 12 amended: Gazette 9 Mar 2018 p. 798.]

13. Classes of day patients

- (1) A day patient must be classified under this clause for the purpose of the payment of the fees and charges set out in Schedule 1 in respect of a day patient.
- (2) A day patient must be classified as —
- (a) a compensable day patient, namely, a day patient who —
    - (i) has received or established the patient's right to receive in respect of any injury, illness or disease for which the patient is receiving health services payment by way of compensation or damages (including payment in settlement of a claim for compensation or damages) under the law that is or was in force in a State or internal Territory; or
    - (ii) on attendance at a hospital appears prima facie to have the right to receive any such payment in respect of an injury, illness or disease for which the patient is receiving health services;
- or
- (b) an eligible day patient, namely, a day patient —
    - (i) who is an eligible person; but
    - (ii) who is not a compensable day patient;
- or

- (c) an ineligible day patient, namely, a day patient —
  - (i) who is not an eligible person; and
  - (ii) who is not a compensable day patient.
- (3) For the purposes of subclause (2)(a), a compensable day patient includes a person in respect of the payment for whose health services one or more of the following applies or appears prima facie to apply —
  - (a) the Workers' Compensation and Injury Management Act 1981;
  - (ab) the Motor Vehicle (Catastrophic Injuries) Act 2016;
  - (b) the Motor Vehicle (Third Party Insurance) Act 1943;
  - (c) the law of Australia relating to the Defence Force within the meaning of the Defence Act 1903 (Commonwealth).

[Clause 13 amended: Gazette 9 Mar 2018 p. 798.]

14. Classes of out-patients

- (1) An out-patient must be classified under this clause for the purpose of the payment of the fees and charges set out in Schedule 1 in respect of an out-patient.
- (2) An out-patient must be classified as —
  - (a) a compensable out-patient, namely, an out-patient who —
    - (i) has received or established the patient's right to receive in respect of any injury, illness or disease for which the patient is receiving health services payment by way of compensation or damages (including payment in settlement of a claim for compensation or damages) under the law that is or was in force in a State or internal Territory; or
    - (ii) who on attendance at a hospital appears prima facie to have the right to receive any such

cl. 14

payment in respect of an injury, illness or disease for which the patient is receiving health services;

or
