Part 6 — Estate administration

64. Making of administration order

- (1) Subject to section 4, where the State Administrative Tribunal is satisfied that a person in respect of whom an application for an administration order is made under section 40 —
- (a) is unable, by reason of a mental disability, to make reasonable judgments in respect of matters relating to all or any part of his estate; and
 - (b) is in need of an administrator of his estate,
- the Tribunal may by order declare the person to be in need of an administrator of his estate, and if it does so shall appoint —
- (c) a person to be the administrator; or
 - (d) persons to be joint administrators,
- as the case may require, of the estate of the person in respect of whom the application is made.
- (2) Where under subsection (1) the State Administrative Tribunal declares that a person is in need of an administrator of his estate, it shall declare the matter or matters set out in paragraph (a) of that subsection of which it is satisfied.
- (3) An appointment under subsection (1) —
- (a) may be made subject to such conditions and restrictions as the State Administrative Tribunal thinks fit;
 - (b) may, subject to section 51 of the Public Trustee Act 1941, include requirements as to the giving of security to the executive officer and the manner in which it is to be given.

[Section 64 amended: No. 16 of 1992 s. 18; No. 57 of 1997 s. 67; No 70 of 2000 s. 9; No. 34 of 2004 Sch. 2 cl. 11; No. 55 of 2004 s. 466.]

65. Emergency provision

Where it appears to the State Administrative Tribunal that —

- (a) a person may be a person in respect of whom a declaration should be made under subsection (1) of section 64; and
- (b) it is necessary to make immediate provision for the protection of the person's estate, then, pending the determination of the question whether the person is, in fact, a person in respect of whom a declaration should be made under that subsection, the Tribunal may exercise such of the powers conferred on it by this Act as may be necessary for enabling that provision to be made.

[Section 65 amended: No. 55 of 2004 s. 466.]

66. Acts may be authorised without administration order

- (1) Where it appears to the State Administrative Tribunal that subsection (1)(a) of section 64 applies to a person but that subsection (1)(b) of that section does not apply to him in that there is no need of a continuing appointment of an administrator of his estate, the Tribunal may, without making such an appointment, by order authorise or require a person who could be appointed as administrator under section 68 to perform any specified function.
- (2) The provisions of sections 64(2) and (3), 67, 71(4) and (5), and 72 apply with all necessary changes in the circumstances described in subsection (1).

- (4) Sections 69(2), (3) and (4), 70, 74, 76, 78(1)(b), 78(2) and 81 apply to a person authorised under subsection (1) as if he were an administrator.

- (5) Section 79 applies with all necessary changes to any act lawfully done by a person under subsection (1).
- (6) The State Administrative Tribunal may in an order under subsection (1) declare that section 80 applies to a person appointed under subsection (1), or applies subject to any specified modification.

67. Non-residents etc.

- (1) An order may be made under section 64(1) in respect of a person who is not resident or domiciled in Western Australia, but any such order is limited to the person's estate within Western Australia.
- (2) Notwithstanding section 41(3)(b) or 89(3)(b), the State Administrative Tribunal may dispense with the requirement for notice to be given under that section to the person in respect of whom the application is made or the represented person, as the case may be, where that person is not resident or domiciled in Western Australia.
- (3) In making an order in respect of a person referred to in subsection (1) the State Administrative Tribunal may act on a relevant finding under the written law of a State or Territory of Australia or the written law of New Zealand or a designated country.
- (4) A finding referred to in subsection (3) may be evidenced by a copy thereof duly certified by an officer of the court or other authority by which the finding was made.
- (5) In subsection (3) — designated country means any part of the Commonwealth of Nations or a country, state or territory declared to be a designated country for the purposes of that subsection by order made by the Governor and published in the Gazette; and

 - (d) is otherwise suitable to act as the administrator of the estate of that person.
- (2) The State Administrative Tribunal shall not appoint as administrator a corporate trustee that is a trustee company under the Trustee Companies Act 1987 unless it is satisfied that —
 - (a) there is an individual who would otherwise be appointed as administrator and that individual has in writing requested the appointment of that trustee company; or
 - (b) the person in respect of whom the application is made has made a will appointing the trustee company as executor and the will remains unrevoked at the time of the appointment.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (1), the State Administrative Tribunal shall take into account as far as is possible —
 - (a) the compatibility of the proposed appointee with the person in respect of whom the application is made and with the guardian (if any) of that person;
 - (b) the wishes of that person; and

- (c) whether the proposed appointee will be able to perform the functions proposed to be vested in the administrator.
- (4) The fact that a person is the guardian of a person does not disqualify him from being appointed as the administrator of the estate of that person.
- (5) Except where he is appointed to act jointly with another person or other persons, the State Administrative Tribunal shall not appoint the Public Advocate as an administrator unless there is no other individual or corporate trustee who is suitable and willing to act.

[Section 69 amended: No. 55 of 2004 s. 466(1).]

70. Administrator to act in best interests of represented person

- (1) An administrator shall act according to his opinion of the best interests of the represented person.

- (2) An administrator shall comply with any direction given to him under subsection (1).
- (3) The executive officer shall, at least 14 days before the day on which an application under subsection (1) is to be heard, cause notice of the hearing to be given to the applicant, the represented person, and to such of the persons referred to in section 41(1)(a) and (c) as the State Administrative Tribunal may specify.

- (2) The State Administrative Tribunal shall not set aside any transaction under this section where —
