Western Australia

Bail Amendment Act 2022

No. 29 of 2022

An Act to amend the Bail Act 1982.

[Assented to 3 September 2022]

The Parliament of Western Australia enacts as follows:

s. 1

1. Short title

This is the Bail Amendment Act 2022.

2. Commencement

This Act comes into operation as follows —

- (a) sections 1 and 2 — on the day on which this Act receives the Royal Assent (assent day);
- (b) sections 9 and 10 — on the day after assent day;
- (c) the rest of the Act — on the 28th day after assent day.

3. Act amended

This Act amends the Bail Act 1982.

4. Section 3 amended

In section 3(1) insert in alphabetical order:

sexual offence means —

- (a) an offence described in Schedule 2 that is of a sexual nature; or
- (b) an offence under a written law that has been repealed, if the acts or omissions alleged against the accused that constitute the offence under the repealed written law would constitute an offence referred to in paragraph (a); or
- (c) an offence of attempting, or of conspiracy or incitement, to commit an offence referred to in paragraph (a) or (b); or
- (d) an offence of becoming an accessory after the fact (as defined in The Criminal Code section 10) to an offence referred to in paragraph (a) or (b);

5. Section 6A amended

In section 6A(1) delete the definition of serious offence.

6. Section 9 amended

(1) In section 9(1):

(a) delete “he” and insert:

the officer

(b) delete paragraph (c) and insert:

(c) without limiting paragraph (a) or (b) — to consider what, if any, conditions should be imposed to enhance the protection of an alleged victim of an offence with which the accused is charged, if —

(i) the accused and the alleged victim are, or are reasonably believed by the officer to be, in a family relationship; or

(ii) the offence charged is a sexual offence and the alleged victim is a person who is under 18 years of age when the case for bail is to be considered.

(2) In section 9(2) delete “he is”.

7. Schedule 1 Part C clause 1A inserted

At the beginning of Schedule 1 Part C insert:

1A. Terms used

In this Part —

child victim, in relation to a discretion to grant bail, means a person —

- (a) against whom a relevant offence is alleged to have been committed; and
- (b) who is under 18 years of age when the discretion is to be exercised;

family member has the meaning given in the Restraining Orders Act 1997 section 4(3);

pending offence, in relation to a discretion to grant bail, means an offence for which the accused is awaiting trial at the time the discretion is to be exercised, whether or not the discretion arises in the course of proceedings relating to that offence;

relevant offence, in relation to a discretion to grant bail, means an offence —

- (a) in connection with which the accused is, at the time the discretion is to be exercised, in custody awaiting an appearance in court before conviction; and
- (b) in the course of proceedings relating to which the discretion to grant bail arises.

8. Schedule 1 Part C clause 3 replaced

Delete Schedule 1 Part C clause 3 and insert:

3. Matters relevant to cl. 1(a)

In considering whether an accused may do any of the things mentioned in clause 1(a), the judicial officer or authorised officer must have regard to the following matters —

- (a) in relation to each relevant offence — the strength of the evidence against the accused;
- (b) in relation to each pending offence —
 - (i) the nature and seriousness of the offence; and
 - (ii) the probable method of dealing with the accused for the offence, if convicted;
- (c) in relation to each pending offence and each offence of which the accused has previously been convicted — the conduct of the accused, after the time or alleged time of the offence, towards —
 - (i) any person against whom it was, or was alleged to have been, committed; and
 - (ii) any family member of such a person;
- (d) the character, previous convictions, antecedents, associations, home environment, background, place of residence, and financial position of the accused;
- (e) the history of any previous grants of bail to the accused;
- (f) any other matter which the officer considers relevant.

3AA. Additional relevant matters in cases of sexual offences against child victims

- (1) This clause applies if —
 - (a) a relevant offence is a sexual offence against a child victim; and

- (b) the accused is not a child.
- (2) In considering under clause 1(a)(iii) whether the accused, if not kept in custody, may endanger the safety or welfare of the child victim, the judicial officer or authorised officer must have regard to the matters mentioned in subclause (3).
- (3) The matters are the following —
 - (a) the age of the child victim;
 - (b) the age of the accused;
 - (c) whether the child victim is in a family relationship with the accused;
 - (d) the living arrangements of the child victim and of the accused;
 - (e) the importance of safety, continuity, security and stability in the child victim's —
 - (i) living arrangements; and
 - (ii) family and community relationships;
 - (f) the physical and emotional wellbeing of the child victim.

Note for this clause:

The Crimes Act 1914 (Commonwealth) section 15AAA provides that a bail authority must not grant bail to a person charged with, or convicted of, certain Commonwealth child sex offences unless the bail authority is satisfied that circumstances exist to justify bail.

3AB. Concerns of child victims

- (1) This clause applies if —
 - (a) a relevant offence is a sexual offence against a child victim; and
 - (b) either —
 - (i) the child victim expresses concern to the prosecutor that the accused, if not kept in custody, may endanger the safety or welfare of the child victim; or

- (ii) a family member of the child victim or a police officer investigating the relevant offence informs the prosecutor that the child victim has expressed that concern;
 - and
 - (c) the accused is not a child.
- (2) The prosecutor must inform the judicial officer or authorised officer about —
- (a) the child victim’s expression of concern; and
 - (b) so far as practicable, the reasons for that concern.
- (3) In considering under clause 1(a)(iii) whether the accused, if not kept in custody, may endanger the safety or welfare of the child victim, the judicial officer or authorised officer must have regard to that information.

9. Schedule 1 Part C clause 4 amended

In Schedule 1 Part C clause 4(1) delete “shall be exercised having regard to the questions set out in clause 1 as well as to any others which the judicial officer considers relevant.” and insert:

must be exercised having regard to all of the following —

- (a) the fact that the accused has been convicted of the offence;
- (b) the probable method of dealing with the accused for that offence and for any pending offence;
- (c) the questions set out in clause 1;
- (d) any other considerations that the judicial officer considers relevant.
