2. Transitional arrangements as to employment

- (1) On the coming into operation of Part VI and this Schedule and notwithstanding the repeal by this Act of the repealed Act, the employment of each person employed by the Mint, whether as a permanent officer, a temporary officer, a wages employee or otherwise, is continued on the same terms and conditions as subsisted immediately before that time.
- (2) Notwithstanding the repeal by this Act of the repealed Act, a person who was employed by the Mint immediately before the coming into operation of Part VI and this Schedule shall not by reason of that repeal cease to be eligible for any benefit (whether a benefit under the Imperial scheme or otherwise) relating to salary, wages, leave, retirement or superannuation to which he would have been entitled had that Act not been repealed in so far as the entitlement had accrued at the time of the repeal of that Act, and the obligations of the Mint, the State and of the Treasurer in respect of that Act shall, in so far as they are not inconsistent with this Act and are required to give effect to this subclause, be deemed to continue.

- (3) For the purposes of this Act, the continuation of the appointment or engagement with the Mint under this Act of a person who was formerly appointed or engaged under the provisions of the repealed Act or of an Act repealed by the repealed Act shall be taken to constitute throughout a continuous appointment or engagement, but no compensation or other payment is payable by reason only of the change in the nature of the appointment or engagement occasioned by the operation of the Perth Mint Amendment Act 1986 or by this Act.
- (4) Where there is no sufficient provision in this Schedule in respect of any matter or thing necessary or convenient to ensure an orderly transition to give effect to this Act in relation to persons appointed or engaged under the provisions of the repealed Act or an Act repealed by the Perth Mint Amendment Act 1986 and their entitlements arising therefrom, regulations made under this Act may make that provision.

3. Transitional termination and re-employment scheme

 - (a) appointed as a permanent officer or as a temporary officer; or

- (2) The employment of a person to whom subclause (1) applies shall terminate —
 - (a) on the day appointed by the Minister under subclause (3);
 - (b) on employment of that person by the Mint;
 - (c) on that person becoming subject to Part 3 of the Public Sector Management Act 1994 or employed in a permanent capacity by any Crown instrumentality or other body which is, or is deemed to be, a department for the purposes of the *Superannuation and Family Benefits Act 1938*⁴ or by a

- (d) on the termination of that employment —
 - (i) by the employee;
 - (ii) in accordance with its terms; or
 - (iii) by reason of misconduct, whichever occurs first.

- (a) entered into arrangements with the Mint for employment; or
 - (b) obtained employment, or been made a reasonable offer of employment, of the kind referred to in subclause (2)(c), may by notice published in the Government Gazette, appoint a day for the purposes of subclause (2)(a).

- (4) Where, after the coming into operation of this Schedule but prior to the day appointed under subclause (3), a person ceases to be employed by the Mint but has accrued entitlement to leave under the repealed Act that person —
 - (a) if the person thereupon becomes subject to Part 3 of the Public Sector Management Act 1994, shall be deemed to have been in continuous service and to have accrued such a leave entitlement under that Act; and
 - (b) otherwise, shall be entitled to payment by the Mint in lieu of that leave at a rate of remuneration not less than that which the person would have received in respect of that leave under the repealed Act.

[Clause 3 amended: No. 32 of 1994 s. 3(2); No. 43 of 2000 s. 46(1).]

4. Continuity of service and superannuation

- (1) Where a person becomes, after the coming into operation of Part VI and this Schedule, an employee of the Mint and immediately prior to his employment as such the person occupied an office under Part 3 of the Public Sector Management Act 1994 or otherwise was a contributor to units of pension or to the Provident Account under the

*Superannuation and Family Benefits Act 1938*⁴ that person shall for the purposes of retaining any leave entitlement under the *Public Service Act 1978*⁵ or any existing accruing rights under the *Superannuation and Family Benefits Act 1938*⁴ be taken to be, and to have been, in continuous service, but the *Public Service Act 1978*⁵ shall not otherwise apply to, or in relation to, an employee of the Mint.

- (2) The Mint, in succession to The Director of The Perth Mint, shall for the purposes of the *Superannuation and Family Benefits Act 1938*⁴ be deemed to be a department.
- (3) Where a person who is a contributor to the superannuation scheme established pursuant to the *Superannuation and Family Benefits Act 1938*⁴ is seconded to service with the Mint, the Mint shall, if so directed by the Treasurer, reimburse the Treasurer on behalf of the Crown in right of the State to be credited to the Consolidated Account the proportion of the State share of the liability in respect of that scheme in relation to the period of secondment.

6. Transfer of certain functions of directors of the Mint

- (1) Any function required to be performed by the Board of directors of the Mint under the repealed Act, or under or in respect of any other law of the Commonwealth or the State, concerning the operations of the Mint during the period ending when the repeal of the repealed Act takes effect shall on the coming into operation of Part VI and this Schedule be performed or continued by the Board of Gold Corporation.
- (2) Any function required to effect the establishment of the Mint as a subsidiary of Gold Corporation shall be performed by the Board of Gold Corporation.

cl. 7

- (3) No action, claim or demand lies against the Board of Gold Corporation, or any person who is or was a member of that Board, in respect of any act, matter or thing done or omitted to be done in good faith in the exercise or purported exercise of any function performed under the repealed Act by the Board of directors of the Western Australian Mint.

[Clause 6 amended: No. 10 of 1990 s. 6.]
