Electricity Corporations Act 2005

Electricity Corporations (South West Interconnected System Prescribed Customers)
Order 2023

SL 2023/39

Made by the Minister.

1. Citation

This order is the Electricity Corporations (South West Interconnected System Prescribed Customers) Order 2023.

2. Commencement

This order comes into operation as follows —

- (a) clauses 1 and 2 — on the day on which this order is published in the Gazette;
- (b) the rest of the order — on the day after that day.

3. Declaration of class of customers (Act s. 54(4)(a))

- (1) In this clause —

commencement day means the day on which this clause comes into operation;

residential customer means a customer who is entitled to be supplied electricity on the basis of a residential tariff under the Energy Operators (Electricity Generation and Retail Corporation) (Charges) By-laws 2006 by-law 5 at each supply point on the South West interconnected system through which electricity is supplied to that customer;

supply point means —

- (a) a bidirectional point as defined in the Electricity Networks Access Code 2004 section 1.3; or

- (b) an exit point as defined in the Electricity Networks Access Code 2004 section 1.3.
- (2) The class of customers declared to be prescribed customers for the purposes of section 54(2) of the Act is each customer who —
 - (a) is a residential customer; or
 - (b) on and from commencement day, never consumes, and could reasonably be expected by the Electricity Networks Corporation to never consume, 50 MWh or more of electricity in a 12-month period at each supply point on the South West interconnected system through which electricity is supplied to that customer.
- (3) However, a customer is not a member of the class described in subclause (2) if the customer consumed 50 MWh or more of electricity at a supply point on the South West interconnected system in any 12-month period within the period beginning on 1 July 2007 and ending on the day before commencement day.

4. Order revoked

The Electricity Corporations (Prescribed Customers) Order 2007 is revoked.

W. JOHNSTON, Minister for Energy.
