- (c) each eligible debit of not less than $1 made to an account kept outside Western Australia if —
 - (i) at the time when the debit is made, the person in whose name, or either or any of the persons in whose names, the account is kept is a resident of Western Australia; and
 - (ii) it would be concluded that the account was used in connection with the transaction that resulted in the debit for the purpose, or for purposes that included the purpose, of enabling —
 - (A) the person in whose name, or either or any of the persons in whose names, the account is kept; or
 - (B) any other person, to avoid liability for payment of the tax that would have been imposed if the debit that resulted from that transaction had been made to an account kept in Western Australia.
- (2) A reference in this section to a debit made to an account kept outside Western Australia includes a reference to a debit made to an account (in this subsection called the “customer’s account”) kept outside Western Australia with a building society, credit union or similar body (including an account kept by way of withdrawable share capital in, or money deposited with, the body) if —
 - (a) another account is kept with a financial institution in the name of the body; and
 - (b) the customer’s account has characteristics such that a cheque may be drawn on the financial institution by the body and, at a time when it is incomplete, be delivered by the body to a customer under an agreement under which —

- (i) the customer is authorised to fill up the cheque;
and
 - (ii) the body is authorised, for the purposes of making a payment to the financial institution to enable the financial institution to honour the cheque, to debit the customer's account.
- (3) The conclusion referred to in subsection (1)(c)(ii) may not be drawn if, under a law of the place where the account is kept, the person concerned would be liable, in relation to the use of the account, to pay tax of a similar kind to the tax imposed by this section.

[Section 4 amended by No. 22 of 1998 s. 44.]

Part 2 — Repeals

5. Acts repealed

The following Acts are repealed —

- (a) Debits Tax Act 1990;

Part 4 — Transitional provisions

Division 1 — Interpretation

“substantive provisions”, in relation to an old Act, means the provisions of the old Act other than those dealing with matters dealt with in the Taxation Administration Act 2003.

Division 2 — General transitional provisions

34. General transitional arrangements

- (1) Section 37(1) of the Interpretation Act 1984, except paragraphs (a) and (b), does not apply in relation to the repeal of an old Act.
- (2) The repeal of an old Act does not, unless the contrary intention appears —
 - (a) affect any right, interest, title, power or privilege created, acquired, accrued, established or exercisable or any status or capacity existing prior to the repeal;
 - (b) affect any duty, obligation, liability, or burden of proof imposed, created, or incurred prior to the repeal;
 - (c) subject to section 11 of The Criminal Code and section 10 of the Sentencing Act 1995, affect any penalty or forfeiture incurred or liable to be incurred in respect of an offence committed against the old Act; or
 - (d) affect any investigation, legal proceeding or remedy in respect of any such right, interest, title, power, privilege, status, capacity, duty, obligation, liability, burden of proof, penalty or forfeiture.
- (3) Subject to subsections (4) and (5) —

- (a) a right, interest, title, power, privilege, duty, obligation, liability or burden of proof referred to in subsection (2)(a) or (b) may be exercised or enforced;
- (b) a penalty or forfeiture referred to in subsection (2)(c) may be imposed and enforced; and
- (c) an investigation, legal proceeding or remedy referred to in subsection (2)(d) may be instituted, continued, or enforced, as if the substantive provisions of the relevant old Act —

- (d) had not been repealed;
 - (e) were a taxation Act for the purposes of the Taxation Administration Act 2003; and
 - (f) had been amended to make any modifications necessary for this section to have effect.

 - (b) any requirement to pay interest on an amount of tax determined in the action to have been overpaid applies and may be enforced;
 - (c) any penalty may be imposed and enforced; and
 - (d) any decision, order or determination made in the action has effect, and may be enforced, as if this Act and the taxation Acts had not commenced.

- (5) If the time limited by an old Act for doing anything is longer than the time limited by a taxation Act for doing the equivalent thing under that Act, then in relation to a matter to which subsection (3) applies, the time limited under the old Act applies in relation to the doing of the thing under the taxation Act.
- (6) If the time limited by an old Act for commencing proceedings in relation to an offence under that Act is shorter than the 5 year period limited by section 111 of the Taxation Administration Act 2003, then despite section 111, proceedings in relation to an offence under the old Act (including an offence under a provision of the old Act that is continued in force under this Part) cannot be commenced after the expiry of the shorter period provided for by the old Act.

35. Commissioner not to increase tax liability

Despite Part 3 Division 1 of the Taxation Administration Act 2003, the Commissioner must not make a reassessment that increases the amount of tax a person is liable to pay in relation to anything that happened before the commencement day if the reassessment could not have been made under the relevant old Act.

36. Delegations

A delegation made under an old Act and in force immediately before the commencement day continues in force on and after that day as a delegation made under section 10 of the Taxation Administration Act 2003.
