26. Rate of transfer duty

- (1) Unless otherwise provided in this Chapter, duty is Chargeable —
  - (a) by reference to the dutiable value of a dutiable transaction; and
  - (b) at the general rate of duty.
- (2) The general rate of duty, concessional rates of duty and the amount of nominal duty are set out in Schedule 2.

Division 5 — Dutiable value

Subdivision 1 — Dutiable value

27. Dutiable value of dutiable transactions, unless otherwise provided

Unless otherwise provided in this Chapter, the dutiable value of a dutiable transaction is —

- (a) the consideration for the dutiable transaction; or
- (b) the unencumbered value of the dutiable property the subject of the transaction when liability for duty on the transaction arises if —
  - (i) there is no consideration for the transaction; or
  - (ii) the consideration cannot be ascertained when liability for duty on the transaction arises; or
  - (iii) the unencumbered value is greater than the consideration for the transaction.

28. Dutiable value of certain dutiable transactions

- (1) If the value of a dutiable transaction referred to in section 11(1)(d)(ii) or (e) is stated in a court order the value stated in the order is the dutiable value of the transaction.
- (2) Subject to subsection (1), the dutiable value of a dutiable transaction that is the foreclosure of a mortgage over dutiable property is the unencumbered value of the dutiable property and not the value of the debt secured by the mortgaged property.
- (3) The dutiable value of a dutiable transaction that is the surrender of a lease is the consideration for the surrender of the lease paid or payable by the lessor.
- (4) The dutiable value of a dutiable transaction that is the grant of a lease is the total of the following amounts —
  - (a) the amount of any consideration for the grant of the lease;
  - (b) any amount paid or payable under the lease as rent that —
    - (i) is in excess of a fair market rent for the leased property; and
    - (ii) represents an amount paid or payable for the grant of the lease.
- (5) The dutiable value of a dutiable transaction under a discretionary trust that would be a transaction described in section 114(1) or 115 except that —
  - (a) consideration is paid or payable for the transaction; and
  - (b) that consideration is consideration referred to in section 30(1)(a),is that consideration.
- (6) The dutiable value of a dutiable transaction that is a transfer of, or an agreement for the transfer of, dutiable property from the trustee of a superannuation fund on which nominal duty would be chargeable under section 127 but for section 127(b), is the amount by which the unencumbered value of the dutiable property transferred exceeds the value of the member's interest in the superannuation fund.

29. Dutiable value of certain dutiable transactions relating to corporation or unit trust scheme property on winding up

- (1) A reference in this section to a transfer of corporation or unit trust scheme property is to a transfer, or agreement for the transfer, of property (some or all of which is dutiable property) by —
- (a) the liquidator of the corporation to any of its shareholders in the course of a distribution of its assets as a consequence of the winding up of the corporation; or
  - (b) the trustee of a unit trust scheme to any unit holder in the scheme in the course of the winding up of the unit trust scheme.

- (2) The dutiable value of a dutiable transaction that is a transfer of corporation or unit trust scheme property is —

- (a) in relation to a corporation — determined in accordance with the following formula —

$$DV = A \times \frac{X}{Y}$$

where —

DV is the dutiable value;

A is the greater of the following amounts —

- (i) the amount (if any) by which the value, when the winding up begins, of all the assets distributed, or to be distributed, to the shareholder exceeds the value, at that time, of the shareholder's entitlement to the net assets of the corporation; or
- (ii) the amount that is the total of —
  - (I) the amount (if any) owing to the shareholder that the shareholder has released the corporation from paying in the relevant period; and
  - (II) the amount (if any) of any liability that the shareholder has assumed or discharged on behalf of the corporation in the relevant period;

X is the unencumbered value of all dutiable property the subject of the transfer;

Y is the unencumbered value of all property the subject of the transfer;
and

- (b) in relation to a unit trust scheme — determined in accordance with the following formula —

$$DV = A \times \frac{X}{Y}$$

where —

DV is the dutiable value;

A is the greater of the following amounts —

- (i) the amount (if any) by which the value, when the winding up begins, of all the assets distributed, or to be distributed, to the unit holder exceeds the value, at that time, of the unit holder's entitlement to the net assets held by the trustee of the unit trust scheme as trustee of that trust; or
- (ii) the amount that is the total of —
  - (I) the amount (if any) owing to the unit holder that the unit holder has released the trustee of the unit trust scheme from paying in the relevant period; and
  - (II) the amount (if any) of any liability that the unit holder has assumed or discharged on behalf of the trustee of the unit trust scheme in the relevant period;

X is the unencumbered value of all dutiable property the subject of the transfer;

Y is the unencumbered value of all property the subject of the transfer.

Note: For example, Company X has 2 equal shareholders A and B. The company has total assets of $800 000, total liabilities of $100 000 and net assets of $700 000. The shareholder entitlement of each of A and B is $350 000.

There are no liquid assets to satisfy the liability and the liquidator distributes the assets subject to the liability. A receives assets of $450 000 ($100 000 in excess of A's entitlement) comprising $400 000 of dutiable property and $50 000 non-dutiable property and assumes the whole mortgage. B receives assets comprising dutiable property of $350 000.

A's duty assessment:

$100 000 (excess entitlement) x $400 000 (value of dutiable property)

$450 000 (value of all property received)

Transfer duty is charged on $88 888.

B's duty assessment:

Nominal duty is charged, as B has received a distribution of assets equal to the shareholder entitlement.

- (3) In subsection (2) —
“relevant period” means the period beginning on the day that is 12 months before the day on which the winding up begins and ending on the day that the property is transferred.
- (4) Subject to subsection (2), nominal duty is chargeable on a dutiable transaction that is a transfer of corporation or unit trust scheme property if —
- (a) in relation to a transfer of corporation property — the total value of the transaction to the shareholder, when the winding up begins, is equal to or less than the value of the shareholder’s entitlement to the net assets of the corporation at that time; or
  - (b) in relation to a transfer of unit trust scheme property — the total value of the transaction to the unit holder, when the winding up begins, is equal to or less than the value of the unit holder’s entitlement to the net assets held in the unit trust scheme at that time.
- (5) This section does not apply to a transfer of corporation or unit trust scheme property if the Commissioner is satisfied that the corporation or unit trust scheme is being wound up as a scheme or arrangement, or part of a scheme or arrangement, for which a dominant purpose of any party was the reduction of the duty otherwise chargeable on the transaction.
- (6) In considering whether or not the Commissioner is satisfied for the purposes of subsection (5), the Commissioner may have regard to any of the following in relation to a corporation —
- (a) the duration of the shareholder’s shareholding in the corporation;
  - (b) whether or not the shareholder held shares in a related corporation of the corporation that owned the property before it was owned by the corporation;
  - (c) the period for which the property has been owned by the corporation or a related corporation of the corporation;
  - (d) any dealing in shares of the corporation or a related corporation of the corporation by any one or more of the following —
    - (i) the shareholder;
    - (ii) a previous owner of the property;

- (e) whether there is any commercial efficacy to a scheme or arrangement of transactions involving any one or more of the following —
    - (i) the corporation;
    - (ii) the shareholder;
    - (iii) a related corporation of the corporation;
    - (iv) a person that has a substantial holding (within the meaning given in the Corporations Act) in a person referred to in subparagraph (i), (ii) or (iii), in relation to the winding up, other than to reduce the duty otherwise chargeable on the transfer;
  - (f) whether the transfer is pursuant to a right, attaching to any of the shares in the corporation, to select or receive any particular property of the corporation;
  - (g) any other matters the Commissioner considers relevant.
- (7) In considering whether or not the Commissioner is satisfied for the purposes of subsection (5), the Commissioner may have regard to any of the following in relation to a unit trust scheme —
- (a) the duration of the unit holder's unit holding in the unit trust scheme;
  - (b) whether or not the unit holder held units in a related unit trust scheme that owned the property before it was owned by the trustee of the unit trust scheme;
  - (c) the period for which the property has been owned by the trustee of the unit trust scheme or a related unit trust scheme of the unit trust scheme;
  - (d) any dealing in units of the unit trust scheme or a related unit trust scheme of the unit trust scheme by any one or more of the following —
    - (i) the unit holder;
    - (ii) a previous owner of the property;
  - (e) whether there is any commercial efficacy to a scheme or arrangement of transactions involving any one or more of the following —
    - (i) the trustee of the unit trust scheme;
    - (ii) the unit holder;
    - (iii) a related unit trust scheme,
in relation to the winding up, other than to reduce the duty otherwise chargeable on the transfer;

- (f) whether the transfer is pursuant to a right, attaching to any of the units in the unit trust scheme, to select or receive any particular property held by the trustee of the unit trust scheme as trustee of that trust;
  - (g) any other matters the Commissioner considers relevant.
- (8) For the purposes of subsection (7), unit trust schemes are related if a unit trust holder in one unit trust scheme holds units that provides the holder to an entitlement to the capital of another unit trust scheme if it were to be wound up.

Subdivision 2 — Consideration

30. Consideration for a dutiable transaction

- (1) The consideration for a dutiable transaction includes —
- (a) the amount of any liabilities assumed under the transaction, including an obligation, whether contingent or otherwise, to pay any unpaid purchase money payable under an agreement for the transfer of dutiable property; and
  - (b) the amount or value of any debt to the extent it is released or extinguished under the transaction.
- (2) If the consideration, or any part of the consideration, for a dutiable transaction on which duty is chargeable consists of an amount payable periodically and the total amount to be paid can be ascertained, the consideration or part of the consideration is the total amount.
- (3) It does not matter whether the consideration for a transaction on which duty is chargeable is paid or given or is required to be paid or given.

31. Assessment or reassessment if consideration is altered

- (1) If after an agreement for the transfer of dutiable property is entered into and before the property is transferred —
- (a) the consideration under the agreement is reduced and the reduced consideration is not less than the unencumbered value of the dutiable property when the consideration was reduced; or
  - (b) the consideration under the agreement is reduced because the parties have agreed not to transfer some of the dutiable property previously agreed to be transferred and the reduced consideration is not less than the unencumbered value of the dutiable property that remained to be transferred when the consideration was reduced, the Commissioner is to assess or, on the application of the taxpayer, reassess the liability to duty of the agreement in accordance with the reduced consideration.

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply in respect of an agreement to which section 32 applies.
- (3) If after an agreement for the transfer of dutiable property is entered into and before the property is transferred —
  - (a) the consideration under the agreement is reduced and the reduced consideration is less than the unencumbered value of the dutiable property when the consideration was reduced; or
  - (b) the consideration under the agreement is reduced because the parties have agreed not to transfer some of the dutiable property previously agreed to be transferred and the reduced consideration is less than the unencumbered value of the dutiable property that remained to be transferred when the consideration was reduced, the Commissioner is to assess or, on the application of the taxpayer, reassess the liability to duty of the agreement in accordance with the dutiable value of the agreement being the unencumbered value when the consideration was reduced.

- (4) If after an agreement for the transfer of dutiable property is entered into and before the property is transferred —
  - (a) the consideration under the agreement is increased; and
  - (b) the increased consideration is not less than the unencumbered value of the dutiable property when the agreement was entered into, the Commissioner is to assess or reassess the liability to duty of the agreement in accordance with the increased consideration.

- (5) If after a dutiable transaction is duty endorsed the consideration under the transaction is increased as referred to in subsection (4), the person liable to pay duty must lodge —
  - (a) if the increase in consideration is effected by an instrument in hard copy form — that instrument and if there is more than one such instrument, each of them; or
  - (b) if the increase in consideration is not effected by an instrument in hard copy form — an instrument in hard copy form that evidences the increase in consideration and if there is more than one such instrument each of them, or a transfer duty statement for the transaction that shows the increase in consideration, within 2 months after the day on which consideration under the transaction is increased.

Penalty: a fine of $20 000.

- (6) Duty is chargeable on a reassessment under this section in relation to a transaction at the same rate and using the same thresholds that applied when liability for duty on the transaction initially arose.

32. Reassessment if contingent consideration is not paid

- (1) If an agreement for the transfer of dutiable property is duty endorsed and any part of the consideration under the agreement was dependent on the happening of a future event (the “contingent consideration”) and —
- (a) the contingent consideration has not been paid; and
  - (b) the event did not happen, or did not happen within the time specified for the happening of the event, in an instrument effecting or evidencing the agreement; and
  - (c) either —
    - (i) the event cannot happen in the future; or
    - (ii) the time specified for the happening of the event in an instrument effecting or evidencing the agreement has passed or expired;
- and
- (d) the taxpayer makes an application for a reassessment under this section in the approved form, the Commissioner is to reassess the liability to duty of the agreement in accordance with the consideration not including the contingent consideration.

- (2) For the purposes of this section, the Taxation Administration Act section 17 applies as if the original assessment had been made when liability to duty on the agreement arose.
- (3) In this section, a reference to the happening of an event includes a reference to an event not happening.

33. Reassessment if agreement determined with consideration only partly paid

- (1) In this section —
- “agreement by instalments” means an agreement for the transfer of dutiable property —
- (a) wholly or partly in consideration of the making of 2 or more payments at intervals specified in an instrument effecting or evidencing the agreement; and

- (b) which is subject to the right of the purchaser or transferee to determine the agreement at any time before the property is transferred on making such of the payments as are due and payable at the time of the determination.
- (2) If, after an agreement by instalments has been duty endorsed, the agreement is determined before the final payment had become due and payable under the agreement, the Commissioner, on the application of the taxpayer, is to reassess the liability to duty of the agreement in accordance with the consideration paid, or due and payable, when the agreement is determined.
- (3) For the purposes of this section, the Taxation Administration Act section 17 applies as if the original assessment had been made when the determination was made.

34. Reassessment if option exercised or not renewed

- (1) If —
  - (a) after a dutiable transaction that —
    - (i) confers on a person the right of an option to acquire dutiable property; and
    - (ii) provides for the renewal of that right on one, or more than one, occasion specified in an instrument effecting or evidencing the transaction,is duty endorsed based on the consideration for the transaction which includes the sum of the amounts paid by way of consideration for the right of the option and the amount or amounts, as the case may be, payable for the renewal or renewals of the option; and
  - (b) the person on whom the right of the option was conferred under the transaction, before the occurrence of the final occasion specified in an instrument effecting or evidencing the transaction —
    - (i) exercised the option; or
    - (ii) failed to renew the right of option, the Commissioner, on the application of the taxpayer, is to reassess the liability to duty of the transaction as if the consideration was an amount equal to the amount paid or payable in respect of any occasion or occasions specified in an instrument effecting or evidencing the transaction that have occurred before the person exercised the option, or failed to renew the right of option.

- (2) For the purposes of this section, the Taxation Administration Act section 17 applies as if the original assessment had been made when the person exercised the option, or failed to renew the right of option.

35. Credit for duty already paid on option to acquire dutiable property

If —

- (a) a transaction record for the grant or renewal of an option to acquire dutiable property is duty endorsed; and
- (b) the consideration for the grant or renewal will form part of the consideration for the transaction if the option is exercised; and
- (c) the option is exercised, the amount of duty payable on the transfer of, or the agreement for the transfer of, dutiable property is to be reduced by the amount of duty paid on the grant or renewal of the option to acquire the property.

Note: For example, consideration is paid for the grant of an option to acquire dutiable property. The transaction provides for the renewal of the right for further consideration.

The transaction also provides that the consideration paid for the grant and renewal of the option forms part of the consideration for the property if the option is exercised.

Duty of $200 is charged on the total consideration for the grant and renewal of the option (the “first dutiable transaction”).

The option is exercised after the renewal of the option and an agreement for the transfer of dutiable property is entered into for consideration (the “second dutiable transaction”).

The amount of duty payable on the second dutiable transaction is reduced by the amount of duty paid on the first dutiable transaction.

If the duty payable on the second dutiable transaction would be $2 000, it is reduced by the duty of $200 paid on the first dutiable transaction. The duty payable on the agreement to transfer the property is therefore $1 800.

Subdivision 3 — Unencumbered value

36. Unencumbered value of property

- (1) The “unencumbered value” of property is the value of the property determined without regard to —
- (a) any encumbrance to which the property is subject, whether contingently or otherwise; or
  - (b) any overriding power of revocation or reconveyance; or
  - (c) any scheme or arrangement —
    - (i) that results in the reduction of the value of the property; and
    - (ii) for which a dominant purpose of any party to the scheme or arrangement was, in the opinion of the Commissioner, the reduction of the value of the property.

Note: Example for paragraph (c) —

A owns land that B wishes to purchase. The land is valued at $1m. Before the purchase, A grants B a 50 year lease of the land. B is not required to pay any rent under the lease. A and B then enter into an agreement for the transfer of the land for $50 000, being the value of A's interest in the land taking into account that it is subject to the lease to B.

The unencumbered value of the land is determined without regard to the grant of the lease if the Commissioner is of the opinion there is a scheme or arrangement under which A or B's purpose in entering into it was to reduce the value of the land.

- (2) Subsection (1)(c) does not apply to or in respect of a scheme or arrangement that was entered into before 27 December 1996.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (1)(c), the Commissioner may have regard to —
  - (a) the duration of the scheme or arrangement before the dutiable transaction or the relevant transaction concerning the property; and
  - (b) whether the scheme or arrangement has been entered into with a related person within the meaning given in section 162; and
  - (c) whether there is any commercial efficacy to the making of the scheme or arrangement other than to reduce duty; and
  - (d) any other matters the Commissioner considers relevant.
- (4) When determining the unencumbered value of property —
  - (a) the unencumbered value of an undivided share in the property, whether held jointly or in common, is to be ascertained by multiplying the total unencumbered value of the property by the share expressed as a fraction; and
  - (b) in applying the ordinary principles of valuation —
    - (i) it is to be assumed that a hypothetical purchaser would, when negotiating the price of property, have knowledge of all existing information relating to the property; and
    - (ii) no account is to be taken of any amount that a hypothetical purchaser would have to expend to reproduce, or otherwise acquire a permanent right of access to and use of, existing information relating to property;

and

  - (c) that is land —

- (i) if the land is the subject of an agreement to transfer, any improvement made to the land at the expense of the purchaser or transferee before the date liability to duty arises on the agreement is to be taken not to have been made to the land; and
- (ii) if the land is the subject of a transfer, any improvement made to the land at the expense of the transferee before the land is transferred is to be taken not to have been made to the land; and
- (iii) having regard to the use of the land that would best enhance its commercial value; and
- (iv) having regard to commercial advantages (such as goodwill) that —
  - (I) attach to the location or other aspects of the land; and
  - (II) would affect the price that a reasonable purchaser would be willing to pay for the land.

Subdivision 4 — Miscellaneous

37. Aggregation of dutiable transactions

- (1) Dutiable transactions relating to separate items of dutiable property that together form, evidence, give effect to or arise from what is, substantially one arrangement are to be aggregated and treated as a single dutiable transaction.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), unless the Commissioner is satisfied to the contrary, dutiable transactions relating to separate items of dutiable property together form, evidence, give effect to or arise from what is, substantially one arrangement if —
  - (a) the transactions have taken place within 12 months; and
  - (b) in respect of each of the transactions, the person liable to pay duty is the same person (whether that person is the only person liable to pay duty or is liable to pay duty with the same or different persons).
- (3) Dutiable transactions relating to separate items of dutiable property are not to be aggregated under this section unless the transactions to be aggregated —
  - (a) are all chargeable at the same rate of duty; or
  - (b) are all chargeable with nominal duty; or
  - (c) are all exempt transactions.

- (4) If dutiable transactions are aggregated, then they are to be treated as a single dutiable transaction that took place at the time that the last of the aggregated transactions took place.
- (5) This section does not apply to a dutiable transaction to the extent that it relates to the grant of an option to acquire dutiable property, other than as required under section 34.
- (6) Duty chargeable on the dutiable transaction aggregated under this section is to be —
  - (a) assessed on the total of the dutiable values for each of the transactions (calculated as if each transaction was a dutiable transaction) at the time when liability for duty on each transaction arose; and
  - (b) apportioned between the transactions as decided by the Commissioner.
- (7) The amount of duty payable in accordance with this section is to be reduced by the amount of any duty paid on a previous dutiable transaction that is, or previous dutiable transactions that are, aggregated under this section.
- (8) Transactions aggregated and treated as a single dutiable transaction under this section may include a transaction that would not otherwise be a dutiable transaction, and where such a transaction is included, that transaction is taken to be a dutiable transaction and is liable to duty accordingly.

38. Apportionment

If a dutiable transaction relates to dutiable property and property that is not dutiable property, duty is chargeable only to the extent that the transaction relates to dutiable property.

39. Partitions

- (1) For the purposes of this section, a partition occurs when property (some or all of which is dutiable property) that is held by persons jointly (as joint tenants or tenants in common) and beneficially is transferred or agreed to be transferred to one or more of those persons.
- (2) The dutiable value of a partition is to be determined in accordance with the following formula —

$$DV = A \times \frac{X}{Y}$$

where —

DV is the dutiable value;

A is the greater of the following amounts —

- (i) the sum of the amounts by which the unencumbered value of the property transferred or agreed to be transferred to a person exceeds the unencumbered value of the interest held by the person in all of the property immediately before the partition; or
- (ii) the sum of any consideration for the partition paid by any of the parties;

X is the unencumbered value of all dutiable property the subject of the partition;

Y is the unencumbered value of all property the subject of the partition.

- (3) The minimum amount of duty payable on a transaction that effects a partition is the amount of nominal duty.

Note: For example, A and B own lot 1 which has an unencumbered value of $400 000 and a boat that has an unencumbered value of $300 000. The total value of the property being partitioned is $700 000 and A and B are each entitled to $350 000. A is taking lot 1 by way of partition and the value of that lot exceeds A's entitlement by $50 000. A's duty assessment:
$$\frac{$50\,000 \text{ (excess entitlement)} \times $400\,000 \text{ (value of dutiable property)}}{$700\,000 \text{ (value of all property)}}$$
The dutiable value for the transfer of land to A is $28 571.

40. Exchanges

Duty is chargeable on any dutiable transactions effecting an exchange of dutiable property for any other dutiable property as if the exchange involved —

- (a) the transfer of the first-mentioned property for consideration equal to the unencumbered value of that property; and
- (b) the transfer of the second-mentioned property for consideration equal to the unencumbered value of that property.

Division 6 — No double duty

41. No double duty — general

- (1) If a transaction for property constitutes more than one dutiable transaction for the property and the charging of duty on all of the dutiable transactions for the property would result in duty being imposed more than once on the transaction, the Commissioner is to decide the dutiable transaction on which duty is imposed and duty is not chargeable on the other dutiable transaction, or dutiable transactions.

- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the Commissioner is to decide the dutiable transaction for the property that is the most applicable dutiable transaction having regard to this Chapter and the sole or dominant purpose of the transaction.

42. No double duty — particular dutiable transactions

- (1) Duty is not chargeable on the transfer of dutiable property to a transferee in conformity with an agreement for the transfer of dutiable property if that agreement is duty endorsed.
- (2) Duty is not chargeable on the transfer of dutiable property to a transferee under an agreement for the transfer of dutiable property if —
  - (a) when liability for duty on the agreement arises, the transferee and the purchaser of the property under the agreement are related as referred to in section 43; and
  - (b) the agreement is duty endorsed.
- (3) If an agreement for the transfer of dutiable property is duty endorsed and either, or both, of the following applies —
  - (a) there is a difference in the parties liable to duty under the agreement and the transferees under the transfer, and subsection (2)(a) does not apply;
  - (b) there is a difference between the division of the property between the transferees under the transfer and the division of the property between the parties liable to duty under the agreement, and subsection (2)(a) does not apply, duty is not chargeable on the transfer of the property except to the extent of the change between the agreement and the transfer.

Note: Example for subsection (3) —

On 1 July, under an agreement for the transfer of dutiable property, A agrees to sell land in Western Australia to B and C as tenants in common in the undivided shares of 90/100 to B and 10/100 to C for $100 000.

At settlement, under the transfer, B and a new party, D are tenants in common in equal shares.

Transfer duty is chargeable on the transfer of the property only to the extent of the change in the interests in the property between the agreement and the transfer.

Transfer duty would be chargeable on the transfer of the property on 50/100 X $100 000, which is $50 000 i.e. 10/100 from C to D and 40/100 from B to D.

- (4) If an agreement for the transfer of dutiable property is duty endorsed, duty is not chargeable on the subsequent transfer of the property if, when liability for duty on the agreement arose, the person named in the instrument effecting, or evidencing, the agreement as the purchaser was acting as the agent of the transferee of the subsequent transfer.

- (5) If —
- (a) an agreement for the transfer of dutiable property is duty endorsed; and
  - (b) the person named in the agreement as the purchaser entered into the agreement with the intention that the property would be transferred to —
    - (i) a corporation that the person intended to be incorporated; or
    - (ii) a dormant corporation, the shares in which the person intended to be acquired,and that property will not be held by the corporation as trustee of a trust; and
  - (c) when liability for duty on the agreement arose, action was being taken to —
    - (i) incorporate the corporation referred to in paragraph (b)(i); or
    - (ii) acquire the shares in the corporation referred to in paragraph (b)(ii), duty is not chargeable on the subsequent transfer of the property to the corporation referred to in paragraph (b)(i) or (ii).

- (6) In subsection (5) —
- “dormant corporation” means a corporation that, since it was incorporated —
- (a) has not had any assets or liabilities other than share capital for subscriber shares or shares issued to replace subscriber shares of the same value on their redemption; and
  - (b) has not been party to an agreement or a beneficiary or trustee of a trust; and
  - (c) has not issued or sold any shares or rights relating to shares other than subscriber shares, rights relating to subscriber shares or shares issued to replace subscriber shares of the same value on their redemption.
- (7) Duty is not chargeable on a transfer of dutiable property by the vendor under an agreement for the transfer of the property that results in the property becoming scheme property for a managed investment scheme if —

- (a) the Commissioner is satisfied that a managed investment scheme has been, or is to be, established by means of an offer to subscribe to the scheme made to the public; and

The exempt body acquires 40 of 100 undivided shares and the other party acquires 60 of 100 undivided shares. But for this section the transfer duty chargeable on the transaction would be $3 000. Under the operation of this section the amount of duty payable on the transaction is calculated as follows:

This amount (i.e. $1 800) is the amount of transfer duty payable by the other party.

- (3) In the case of a linked entity other than one that is immediately below the main entity in the ownership chain, the percentage of the main entity’s interest in the linked entity is determined by multiplying the percentage of the main entity’s interest in the entity immediately below it in the ownership chain by the percentage of the interest that each entity in the ownership chain between the main entity and the linked entity concerned has in the entity immediately below it in the ownership chain.

- (4) In this section, a reference to an interest in an entity is, if the entity is the trustee of a discretionary trust, a reference to being a potential beneficiary under the trust.

  - (c) the acquisition is taken to have occurred at the time when the material alteration occurred.
- (5) If the acquisition mentioned in subsection (1)(a) was a partially exempt acquisition under section 172 the amount of duty payable in respect of the acquisition that is taken to have occurred under subsection (4) is to be reduced by the amount of the duty paid in respect of the partially exempt acquisition.

174. No exemption where interest transferred within 5 years

- (1) This section applies if —
  - (a) an acquisition of an interest in a corporation (the “first acquisition”) was exempt under section 171; and

Part 6 — Collection of landholder duty

Division 1 — Preliminary

In this Part —

“acquirer” means a person that acquires an interest in a landholder by a relevant acquisition and, if there is more than one, each of them.

176. When an acquisition occurs

- (1) For the purposes of this Chapter, but subject to section 173(4)(c), the time when an acquisition of an interest in a landholder occurs is to be determined under this section.
- (2) If there is an agreement for the making of the acquisition, whether conditional or not, and subsection (3) does not apply, the acquisition occurs when the agreement is made.

Note: Section 196 provides for the reassessment of duty if an agreement referred to in this subsection is not completed.
- (3) If there is an agreement for the making of the acquisition, whether conditional or not, and the entity concerned is not a landholder when the agreement is made but is a landholder when the agreement is completed, the acquisition occurs when the agreement is completed.

- (4) If subsections (2) and (3) do not apply, the acquisition occurs when the interest to which it relates is acquired.

177. Certain transactions to be treated as agreements

- (1) In this section and in section 178 —
“call option”, “put option” and “simultaneous put and call option” have the meanings those terms would have under section 44 if references in that section to dutiable property were references to a relevant interest;
“relevant interest” means an interest in a landholder or other entity.
- (2) For the purposes of section 176, where a simultaneous put and call option that applies to a relevant interest comes into existence —
(a) subject to section 178, the call option is taken to be an agreement for the making of an acquisition of the relevant interest by the holder of the call option rights;
and
(b) paragraph (a) applies even if the call option is assigned as mentioned in subsection (3).
- (3) If, in respect of a simultaneous put and call option that applies to a relevant interest —

(i) to the other person; or
(ii) to a person that has an agreement, arrangement or understanding with the other person relating to the interest;
and
(b) the put option obligations have passed to any person referred to in paragraph (a),
the assignment of the call option to the other person is taken, for the purposes of section 176, to be an agreement for the acquisition of the relevant interest by that person.
- (4) If subsection (3) applies, subsection (2) does not apply to the right referred to in subsection (3)(a) or the rights under the put option referred to in subsection (3)(b).

Note: Section 196 provides for the reassessment of duty if a deemed agreement is not completed.

178. Exceptions to section 177

- (1) In this section —

“proprietor of a business” means a person that has an interest in a landholder or other entity that carries on a business.

- (2) It is an exception to section 177(2) if the call option and the put option are for, and only for, the purpose of obtaining finance or making other financial arrangements.
- (3) It is also an exception to section 177(2) if the call option and the put option form part of a scheme of call options and put options given by the proprietors of a business that —
  - (a) are for, and only for, the purpose of facilitating the continuation of the business by one or some of those proprietors (the “continuing proprietor or proprietors”); and
  - (b) are not exercisable except on the occurrence of an event specified in them that would cause the continuing proprietor or proprietors to seek to acquire the interest of another of the proprietors.

Division 2 — Liability

179. Person liable to pay duty

- (1) The duty chargeable in respect of a relevant acquisition is payable by the person or persons determined under subsection (2) in relation to the acquisition.

- (3) To the extent that a person referred to in subsection (2)(b), (c) or (d) has paid the duty chargeable in respect of a relevant acquisition the person may recover the amount of duty paid from the acquirer concerned, or if there is more than one from any of them, as a debt due to the person.

180. Application to Commissioner for determination of liability

- (1) A person mentioned in subsection (2) may, within 2 months after the day on which an acquisition of an interest in an entity occurs, apply to the Commissioner for a determination whether any liability has arisen under this Chapter in respect of the acquisition.
- (2) The persons that may apply are —
  - (a) any person that by the acquisition acquires an interest in the entity; or

  - (b) any liability of a person under section 200 in respect of the acquisition ceases unless it is revived under section 182(5), but the obligation imposed by paragraph (a) is qualified so far as it is inconsistent with the exercise of a power conferred on the Commissioner by section 182(1) or (4).

181. Determination of application

- (1) If, on an application under section 180, the Commissioner determines that liability has not arisen under section 151 in respect of the acquisition in question, the Commissioner is to give notice of that determination to the applicant.

182. Powers of Commissioner where further information required for determination of application

- (1) If on an application under section 180 further information or evidence is necessary for the making of a determination, the Commissioner may —

- (a) defer the making of a determination; and
- (b) by written notice require the applicant to provide further information or evidence to the Commissioner within a specified period, and the Commissioner may exercise those powers as often as the Commissioner thinks fit until all necessary information and evidence have been provided.

- (2) The Commissioner may at any time extend the period specified in a notice under subsection (1)(b).
- (3) The powers of the Commissioner under subsection (1) are in addition to, and do not limit, the powers that the Commissioner has under the Taxation Administration Act to obtain information or carry out an investigation.
- (4) If —
  - (a) the Commissioner has under subsection (1) required the applicant to provide further information or evidence; and
  - (b) the Commissioner considers that the applicant has not within the required period provided the information or evidence, the Commissioner is to give the applicant written notice of that opinion and of the effect of subsection (5).

- (5) If the Commissioner gives notice under subsection (4) —
  - (a) section 180(4)(a) does not apply; and
  - (b) any liability that ceased under section 180(4)(b) is revived as if the application under section 180(1) had never been made.

Division 3 — Payment of landholder duty

183. Payment of landholder duty

- (1) Liability to pay the duty chargeable in respect of a relevant acquisition arises when the relevant acquisition occurs.
- (2) The duty is due for payment within one month after the date of an assessment notice issued in relation to an assessment of the duty.

Division 4 — Rates of landholder duty

184. Rates of landholder duty

- (1) Duty is chargeable at the general rate of duty set out in Schedule 2.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1) the value referred to in section 188(1), 189(2) or 191(2), as the case may require, is taken to be the dutiable value.

Division 5 — Calculation of landholder duty

185. The term “interest of the acquirer”

A reference in this Division to the interest of the acquirer in a landholder after a relevant acquisition is to the aggregated interests of —

- (a) the acquirer; and
- (b) any related person that is to be taken into account in relation to the acquisition for the purposes of section 163 or 164.

186. Value of landholder

- (1) For the purposes of calculating duty in respect of a relevant acquisition the value of a landholder is taken to be the sum of —
  - (a) the unencumbered value of the land and chattels in Western Australia to which the landholder is entitled; and
  - (b) the same percentage of the unencumbered value of the land and chattels in Western Australia to which any linked entity in respect of the landholder is entitled as the percentage of the landholder’s interest in the linked entity taken into account under section 157.
- (2) Except where section 187 applies, the entitlements referred to in subsection (1) are to be those that exist immediately after the relevant acquisition.

187. Time of determination of the value of further interests for calculation of duty

- (1) This section applies where —
  - (a) it is necessary to determine the value of an interest of an acquirer in a landholder for the purposes of section 188(3) or 191(3); and
  - (b) the relevant acquisition concerned is of a further interest in either —
    - (i) a listed landholder; or
    - (ii) a landholder that is not listed but was previously listed and in which, at a time when it was listed, the interest of the acquirer was not less than a 90% interest.
- (2) The value is to be determined —
  - (a) as if the further interest was acquired at the same time as the interest of the acquirer became not less than a 90% interest in the landholder concerned; and
  - (b) on the basis of the value of the landholder at that time.

188. Calculation of duty

- (1) To calculate the amount of duty payable in respect of a relevant acquisition an amount is first calculated by applying the appropriate rate of duty under section 184(1) to the value of the interest of the acquirer in the landholder immediately after the relevant acquisition and then, if applicable, a deduction is made under section 189 or 191.
- (2) The resulting amount is the duty payable in respect of the relevant acquisition.
- (3) The value of the interest referred to in subsection (1) is the same percentage of the value of the landholder as the percentage of the interest of the acquirer in the landholder after the relevant acquisition.

189. Reduction where significant interest acquired in a landholder

- (1) This section applies to the calculation of duty in respect of a relevant acquisition described in section 163.
- (2) The amount calculated under section 188(1) is to be reduced by an amount determined by applying the appropriate rate of duty under section 184(1) to the value of any excluded interest as determined under subsection (3).
- (3) The value of an excluded interest is the same percentage of the value of the landholder concerned as the percentage of all interests in the landholder that is represented by the excluded interest.

190. Meaning of “excluded interest” for section 189

- (1) The reference in section 189 to an excluded interest is to an interest in the landholder concerned that is part of the interest of the acquirer, being —
  - (a) an interest, other than one to which subsection (2) applies, that was held by the person or a related person, or by the person and a related person, before the day that is 3 years before the day on which the relevant acquisition occurred; or
  - (b) an interest in the landholder concerned acquired by an acquisition if immediately before the acquisition neither the landholder nor a linked entity in respect of the landholder was entitled to land in Western Australia.
- (2) This subsection applies to an interest in the landholder acquired by an acquisition (the “earlier acquisition”) if the relevant acquisition in respect of which duty is to be calculated under section 188(1) was made pursuant to an arrangement entered into during the prescribed period in respect of the earlier acquisition.

Note: The operation of subsection (1) is modified if the day paragraph (a) refers to is before 1 July 2008: see Schedule 3 clause 13(1).

- (3) The reference in subsection (2) to the prescribed period in respect of the earlier acquisition is to the period beginning on the day that is 3 years before the day on which the earlier acquisition occurred and ending on the day that is 3 years after that day.

191. Reduction where further interest acquired in a landholder

- (1) This section applies to the calculation of duty in respect of a relevant acquisition described in section 164.
- (2) The amount calculated under section 188(1) is to be reduced by an amount determined by applying the appropriate rate of duty under section 184(1) to the value of any excluded interest as determined under subsection (3).
- (3) The value of an excluded interest is the same percentage of the value of the landholder concerned as the percentage of all interests in the landholder that is represented by the excluded interest.

192. Meaning of “excluded interest” for section 191

The reference in section 191 to an excluded interest is to an interest in the landholder concerned that is part of the interest of the acquirer, being —

- (a) an interest that was held by the person or a related person, or by the person and a related person, before the day that is 3 years before the day on which the relevant acquisition occurred; or
- (b) an interest acquired by a relevant acquisition that occurred on or after the day referred to in paragraph (a) if duty was chargeable in respect of that acquisition; or
- (c) an interest referred to in section 190(1)(b).

Note: The operation of this section is modified if the day paragraph (a) refers to is before 1 July 2008: see Schedule 3 clause 13(2).

193. Calculation of duty where statement lodged under section 201

- (1) This section applies to the calculation of duty if a statement is lodged under section 201(6) in respect of a relevant acquisition referred to in section 164 that occurred during a period (a “relevant period”) provided for by an approval under section 201(2).
- (2) The Commissioner is not required to make a separate calculation under this Division of duty in respect of each relevant acquisition that occurred during the relevant period.

- (3) Instead, the Commissioner may calculate the duty under this Division in respect of all relevant acquisitions that occurred during the relevant period as if all such acquisitions had been made by a single relevant acquisition that occurred at the end of the relevant period.

194. Calculation of duty in respect of certain acquisitions on winding up of corporation or unit trust scheme

- (1) Despite anything else in this Division, duty is to be calculated under this section in respect of a relevant acquisition by a person of an interest in a landholder if the acquisition —
- (a) occurs in the circumstances referred to in subsection (2); and
  - (b) is not exempt under section 167 because the effect of the acquisition is that the person receives a benefit in excess of the person's entitlement.

Note: The combined operation of sections 29(4) and 167 will make the acquisition exempt if the value of the person's benefit is not in excess of the person's entitlement.

- (2) The circumstances referred to are that —
- (a) the relevant acquisition occurs as a result of a transfer of shares in a corporation or units in a unit trust scheme by —
    - (i) the liquidator of a corporation in the course of a distribution of its assets as a consequence of the winding up of the corporation; or
    - (ii) the trustee of a unit trust scheme in the course of the winding up of the scheme;
  - and
  - (b) the person concerned is —
    - (i) a shareholder in the corporation; or
    - (ii) a unit holder in the unit trust scheme,that is being wound up; and
  - (c) the Commissioner is satisfied that the winding up is not a scheme or arrangement, or part of a scheme or arrangement, for which a dominant purpose of any party is the reduction of the duty otherwise payable.
- (3) The amount of duty payable in respect of the relevant acquisition is an amount that bears to the amount of duty that would otherwise be calculated under this Division in respect of the acquisition the same proportion as the value of the benefit received by the person in excess of the person's entitlement bears to the value of all the assets distributed or to be distributed to the person as a consequence of the winding up.

- (4) For the purposes of this section —
- (a) a shareholder in a corporation receives a benefit in excess of the shareholder's entitlement if the value, when the winding up begins, of all the assets distributed or to be distributed to the shareholder (the "distributed value") exceeds the value at that time of the shareholder's entitlement to the net assets of the corporation (the "entitlement value"); and
  - (b) a unit holder in a unit trust scheme receives a benefit in excess of the unit holder's entitlement if the value, when the winding up begins, of all the assets distributed or to be distributed to the unit holder (also the "distributed value") exceeds the value at that time of the unit holder's entitlement to the net assets held by the trustee of the unit trust scheme as trustee of that trust (also the "entitlement value").
- (5) For the purpose of calculating duty under subsection (3), the value of a benefit received by a shareholder or unit holder in excess of the person's entitlement is the greater of —
- (a) the amount by which the distributed value exceeds the entitlement value in relation to the person; and
  - (b) the amount that is the total of —
    - (i) any amount owing to the shareholder or unit holder that the shareholder or unit holder has, in the relevant period, released the corporation or the trustee of the unit trust scheme from paying; and
    - (ii) the amount of any liability that the shareholder or unit holder has, in the relevant period, assumed or discharged on behalf of the corporation or the trustee of the unit trust scheme.
- (6) In subsection (5)(b) —
"relevant period" means the period beginning on the day that is 12 months before the day on which the winding up begins and ending on the day on which the relevant acquisition occurs.
- (7) Section 29(6), (7) and (8) apply for the purposes of subsection (2)(c) as if —

- (a) a reference to the property were a reference to the shares or the units, as the case may require; and
- (b) a reference to the duty chargeable were a reference to the duty payable in respect of the relevant acquisition.

Division 6 — Reassessment of liability for landholder duty

195. Reassessment of duty where section 149 was applied

- (1) A reassessment of duty in respect of a relevant acquisition is required if —
  - (a) for the purposes of an assessment, an agreement to acquire an interest in land has, under section 149(1)(a), been regarded as having been completed; and
  - (b) since that determination the agreement has been rescinded, annulled or otherwise terminated without being completed; and
  - (c) had the agreement not been regarded as having been completed —
    - (i) the liability for duty in respect of the relevant acquisition would not have arisen; or
    - (ii) the amount of the duty payable would have been less.
- (2) A reassessment of duty in respect of a relevant acquisition is also required if —
  - (a) for the purposes of an assessment, an agreement to dispose of an interest in land has, under section 149(1)(b), been disregarded; and
  - (b) since that determination the agreement has been completed; and
  - (c) had the agreement not been disregarded —
    - (i) the liability for duty in respect of the relevant acquisition would not have arisen; or
    - (ii) the amount of the duty payable would have been less.
- (3) On application made by a person that has paid or is liable to pay the duty, the Commissioner is to make a reassessment of the duty —
  - (a) if subsection (1) applies — disregarding the agreement referred to in that subsection; or
  - (b) if subsection (2) applies — having regard to the agreement referred to in that subsection.

196. Reassessment of duty where section 176(2) was applied

- (1) A reassessment of duty in respect of a relevant acquisition is required if —
- (a) for the purposes of an assessment, the acquisition was treated as having been made under an agreement of the kind referred to in section 176(2); and
  - (b) since that assessment —
    - (i) the agreement has been rescinded, annulled or otherwise terminated without being completed; or
    - (ii) subsection (2) has become applicable to the agreement;
- and
- (c) had the acquisition not been treated as mentioned in paragraph (a) the liability for duty in respect of the relevant acquisition would not have arisen.
- (2) This subsection has become applicable to an agreement that is taken to exist under section 177(2) or (3) if —
- (a) the call option and the put option of the simultaneous put and call option referred to in section 177(2) or (3) —
    - (i) both expire without being exercised; or
    - (ii) are rescinded or cancelled by agreement, or either is rescinded or cancelled and the other expires without being exercised;
- and
- (b) the call option has not been assigned or further assigned as referred to in section 177(3).
- (3) On application made by a person that has paid or is liable to pay the duty, if subsection (1) applies, the Commissioner is to make a reassessment of the duty disregarding the agreement referred to in subsection (1)(a).
- (4) If a reassessment is required under subsection (1)(b)(ii), the Taxation Administration Act section 17 applies as if the original assessment had been made as soon as subsection (2) became applicable to the agreement that was taken to exist under section 177(2) or (3).

197. Further matter to be considered by the Commissioner

Despite section 195(3)(a) or 196(3), the Commissioner is not to make a reassessment of the duty under that provision unless the Commissioner is also satisfied that the rescission, annulment or other termination of the agreement was not part of a scheme or arrangement under which the object of the agreement has been or may be achieved in another way.

198. Taxation Administration Act not affected

Sections 195 and 196 are in addition to the provisions of the Taxation Administration Act relating to the reassessment of duty and do not affect the operation of those provisions.
