Commissioner may institute or defend proceedings for party

9. (1) The Commissioner may, upon being satisfied that there is a cause of action and that it is in the public interest, on behalf of any party to a residential tenancy agreement, institute legal proceedings against any other person or defend any proceedings brought against the party or assume the conduct of proceedings already commenced by or against the party, with a view to enforcing or protecting the rights of the party in relation to any infringement or suspected infringement by that other person of those rights or of any of the provisions of this Act or other law relating to the interests of such parties.

(2) The Commissioner may, if he considers it appropriate, on behalf of any tenant, institute proceedings under section 32 or assume the conduct of proceedings already commenced under that section by the tenant.

(3) The Commissioner shall not institute, defend or assume the conduct of, any proceedings under subsection (1) or (2) on behalf of a party—

(a) without first—

(i) obtaining the written consent of the party which once given shall be irrevocable except with the consent of the Commissioner; and

(ii) obtaining the written consent of the Minister which may be given subject to such conditions as the Minister thinks fit; and

(b) in relation to a residential tenancy agreement that has terminated unless a complaint is made to him by a person who was a party to that agreement within 3 months after termination of the residential tenancy agreement.

(4) In relation to any proceedings referred to in subsection (1) or (2) the following provisions shall apply—

- (a) the Commissioner shall, on behalf of the party to the residential tenancy agreement, have in all respects the same rights in, and control over, the proceedings, including the right to settle any action or part of any action, as the party would have had in the conduct of those proceedings;
- (b) the Commissioner may, without consulting or seeking the consent of the party, conduct the proceedings in such manner as the Commissioner thinks appropriate and proper;
- (c) in the case of proceedings already commenced by or against the party, the court or referee hearing the proceedings shall, on the application of the Commissioner, order that the Commissioner be substituted for the party as a party to the proceedings, and may make such other orders or give such other directions in that behalf as the court or referee thinks fit;
- (d) any moneys (excluding costs) recovered by the Commissioner shall belong and be paid to the party without deduction and any amount awarded against the party shall be paid by and recoverable from the party, but in all cases the costs of the proceedings shall be borne by or paid to and retained by the Commissioner as the case may require; and
- (e) if any party to the proceedings alleges another cause of action, or if the party on whose behalf the proceedings are being defended has another cause of action, the court or referee hearing the proceedings shall, on the application of the Commissioner, order that the proceedings for the other cause of action be heard separately and that the party be a party to those proceedings in his own right and may make such other orders or give such other directions in that behalf as the court or referee thinks fit.

(5) In any proceedings referred to in subsection (1), a document purporting to be signed by the Commissioner stating in respect of the proceedings that he is satisfied that there is a cause of action and that it is in the public interest to institute, defend or assume the conduct of the proceedings, as the case may be, on behalf of the party to the residential tenancy agreement shall, in the absence of proof to the contrary, be accepted as proof that the Commissioner instituted, defended or assumed the conduct of the proceedings, as the case may be, in accordance with that subsection.

(6) In any proceedings referred to in subsection (2), a document purporting to be signed by the Commissioner stating in respect of the proceedings that he considers it appropriate to institute or assume the conduct of the proceedings, as the case may be, on behalf of the tenant shall, in the absence of proof to the contrary, be accepted as proof that the Commissioner instituted or assumed the conduct of the proceedings, as the case may be, in accordance with that subsection.

(7) In any proceedings referred to in subsection (1) or (2)—

shall, in the absence of proof to the contrary, be accepted as proof of the matters referred to in the document.

(8) Any money which the Commissioner becomes liable to pay by virtue of this section shall be paid out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund and this subsection, without any further appropriation, shall be sufficient authority for any such payment.

(9) Any costs received by the Commissioner under subsection (4) (d) shall be paid into the Consolidated Revenue Fund.

(10) In this section "tenant" includes a prospective tenant or former tenant and "party" in relation to a residential tenancy agreement includes a person who is prospectively or was formerly a party to such agreement.

Delegation by Commissioner

Protection of officers

11. No liability shall attach to the Commissioner or any delegate of the Commissioner, or any officer of the Department for any act or omission by the Commissioner, the delegate, or the officer in good faith and in the performance or purported performance of the functions of the Commissioner or the Department under this Act.

PART III—DETERMINATION OF DISPUTES

Jurisdiction

12. (1) Subject to this section, a referee has exclusive jurisdiction to hear and determine any matter that may be the subject of an application under this Act and that matter is not justiciable by any other court or tribunal.

(2) The vesting of jurisdiction under this Act in a referee does not, except as provided by subsection (3), render any provision of the Small Claims Tribunals Act 1974 applicable to any matter that may be the subject of an application under this Act or to the enforcement of compliance with any order made under this Act.

(3) Sections 15A (1), 37 and 38 of the Small Claims Tribunals Act 1974 shall, with all necessary changes, apply for the purposes of this Act as they apply to proceedings of a Small Claims Tribunal and for that purpose references in those sections to a Small Claims Tribunal shall be read as references to a referee.

(4) A referee shall not have jurisdiction to hear and determine any monetary claim where the amount claimed exceeds the prescribed amount, except a claim under clause 8 of Schedule 1, unless the parties to the proceedings consent in writing (which consent shall be irrevocable) to the claim being heard and determined by a referee.

(5) Where under subsection (4) a referee does not have jurisdiction to hear and determine a monetary claim—

- (a) the claim shall be determined by a court competent to hear and determine a claim founded on contract for the amount of that claim;

- (b) that court shall determine the claim according to the practice and procedure applicable in that court, and this Part (other than this subsection) and regulations made for the purposes of this Part shall not apply to the claim and the determination thereof; but
- (c) subject to paragraph (b), this Act shall apply to the determination of the claim.

(6) Where in any action in a court having jurisdiction under subsection (5) the plaintiff recovers an amount not exceeding the prescribed amount, the plaintiff shall not be awarded any costs unless the court is satisfied that at the time of instituting the proceedings there were reasonable grounds for the plaintiff to believe that he had a claim for an amount exceeding the prescribed amount.

(7) In subsections (4) and (6) “the prescribed amount” is $3 000 or such other sum as may be prescribed.

Place for filing application

13. (1) Any application to be made under this Act shall be filed, where the premises the subject of the application are situated—

- (a) in the metropolitan region, in the registry established under section 13 of the Small Claims Tribunals Act 1974; or
- (b) outside the metropolitan region, in the local court held nearest to the place where the premises the subject of the application are situated or, by consent of both parties, in the registry referred to in paragraph (a) or any other local court.

(2) The clerk of the local court in which an application is filed under subsection (1) shall as soon as is practicable send the application to the Registrar.

Time for determination of proceedings

14. Proceedings under this Act shall be heard and determined wherever practicable within 14 days after they are instituted and, where that is not practicable, as expeditiously as possible.

Applications for relief and orders thereon

15. (1) Where an owner or tenant under a residential tenancy agreement or a party to an agreement for an option to enter into a residential tenancy agreement claims that a breach of the agreement has occurred or that a dispute has arisen under the agreement, he may apply to a referee for relief.

(2) Upon such an application a referee may—

- (a) by such order as he considers appropriate in the circumstances—
 - (i) restrain any action in breach of the agreement; or
 - (ii) require any action in performance of the agreement;
- (b) order the payment of any amount payable under the agreement;
- (c) order the payment of compensation for loss or injury, other than personal injury, caused by any breach of the agreement;
- (d) authorize payment of the rent under the agreement into the registry referred to in section 13 (1) (a) until the agreement has been performed or any application for compensation has been determined, and order that such rent be paid out towards the cost of remedying the breach or towards the amount of any compensation or otherwise as he considers appropriate; and
- (e) make such ancillary or incidental order as the referee considers appropriate.

(3) A referee may make an order under subsection (2) (a) notwithstanding that it provides a remedy in the nature of an injunction or order for specific performance in circumstances in which such remedy would not otherwise be available.

(4) Upon an application with respect to the breach of an agreement, the referee shall take into account any previous breaches by the tenant of the agreement.

Enforcement

16. (1) A person shall not, without reasonable excuse, fail to comply with an order under section 15 (2) other than an order for payment of any amount.

Penalty: $2 000.

(2) An order made under this Act by a referee requiring a person—

- (a) to pay an amount to another person has the same force and effect and the same proceedings may be brought upon it on the application of that other person as if it were a judgment for the payment of money of a local court in its jurisdiction under Part III of the Local Courts Act 1904;
- (b) to give possession of premises to another person has the same force and effect and may be enforced by the issue of a warrant as if it were an order for the possession of land made by that court under Part VI of that Act.

(3) Regulations made under section 88 may make provision for the procedure to be followed for the purpose of enforcing an order referred to in subsection (2).

Application to vary or set aside order

17. (1) A person who is or was a party to any proceedings on an application under this Act may apply to a referee for an order varying or setting aside an order made in those proceedings if the application was heard in his absence.

(2) An application to vary or set aside an order, other than an order under section 84, must be made within 14 days of the making of the order.

Form of applications and notice of hearing

18. (1) Any application under this Act shall—

- (a) be made in writing in a form approved by the Minister; and
- (b) be accompanied by the prescribed fee (if any).

(2) Before a referee hears an application the registrar shall—

- (a) give to the applicant notice in writing setting out the time and place of the hearing; and
- (b) give to any other party—
 - (i) notice in writing setting out the time and place of the hearing; and

- (ii) such notice of the nature of the application as the senior referee appointed under section 5 of the Small Claims Tribunals Act 1974 may direct generally, or as a referee may direct in any particular case.

Witnesses and inspection of documents

19. (1) For the purpose of any proceedings—

(a) a referee or the registrar may by summons—

- (i) require the attendance of any person before a referee;
- (ii) require the production of any books, papers or documents; or
- (iii) require both such attendance and production;

(b) a referee may—

- (i) inspect any books, papers or documents produced, retain them for such reasonable period as he thinks fit, and make copies of any of them, or of any of their contents;
- (ii) require any person appearing before him to make an oath or affirmation that he will truly answer any relevant question put to him by the referee or any person appearing before the referee;
- (iii) require any person appearing before him (whether he has been summoned to appear or not) to answer any relevant question put to him by the referee or any person appearing before the referee.

(2) A person shall not—

- (a) without reasonable excuse fail to comply with the requirements of a summons served on him under subsection (1); or
- (b) refuse or fail to comply with a requirement under subsection (1).

Penalty: $2 000.

20. A referee hearing any application may—

- (a) hear the application in such manner as he considers best suited to the purposes of this Act;
- (b) decline to entertain the application if he considers that the application is frivolous;
- (c) proceed to hear and determine the application in the absence of any party thereto;
- (d) where a person contravenes subsection (2) of section 19, issue a warrant to bring the person before a referee for the purposes of subsection (1) of that section;
- (e) order the refund to a person of a fee paid under section 18 (1) by that person;
- (f) extend or shorten any period prescribed by or under this Act within which any application or other step in respect of proceedings must be made or taken, such power to extend a period being exercisable notwithstanding that that period has expired;
- (g) vary or set aside any order where he considers there are proper grounds for doing so;
- (h) adjourn the hearing to any time or place or to a time and place to be fixed;
- (i) allow the amendment of the application;
- (j) hear the application jointly with any other application;
- (k) receive in evidence any transcript of evidence in proceedings before any court and draw any conclusions of fact therefrom that he considers proper;
- (l) adopt, as he considers proper, any findings, decision or judgment of any court that may be relevant to the proceedings; and
- (m) generally give all such directions and do all such things that he thinks necessary or expedient in the proceedings.

Evidence

21. In any proceedings the referee shall not be bound by the rules of evidence but may inform himself upon any matter relating to the proceedings in such manner as he thinks fit.

Presentation of cases

22. (1) Except as provided in this section, a party to any proceedings shall present his own case and not be represented or assisted in the presentation of his case by another person.

(2) A party to any proceedings may be represented by an agent or assisted by an agent in the presentation of his case if the referee hearing the proceedings is satisfied that—

- (a) the party is unable to appear personally or conduct the proceedings properly himself; and
- (b) no other party will be unfairly disadvantaged by the fact that the agent is allowed so to act.

(3) All or any of the parties to any proceedings may be represented by legal practitioners if—

- (a) all the parties agree and the referee hearing the proceedings is satisfied that any party who is not so represented will not be unfairly disadvantaged;
- (b) one of the parties is a legally qualified person;
- (c) one of the parties is a body corporate and any other party elects to be so represented;
- (d) the referee is satisfied that one of the parties is unable to appear personally or conduct the proceedings properly himself; or
- (e) the proceedings are instituted or defended, or the conduct thereof has been assumed, by the Commissioner.

(4) This section does not prevent—

- (a) a body corporate from being represented by an officer or employee of the body corporate (not being a legally qualified person) authorized to conduct the proceedings on its behalf (whether or not he is remunerated by the body corporate for representing it in the proceedings); or
- (b) a person from acting as an interpreter for a party, if his fee does not exceed an amount fixed by the magistrate at the hearing.

(5) A person shall not demand or receive any fee or reward for representing or assisting a party to proceedings unless—

- (a) he is a legal practitioner;
- (b) where the party is a body corporate, he is an officer or employee of the body corporate representing it under subsection (4); or

Settlement by conciliation

23. (1) If before or during the hearing of any proceedings it appears to the referee either from the nature of the case or from the attitude of the parties that there is a reasonable possibility of matters in dispute between the parties being settled by conciliation, he may—

- (a) interview the parties in private (either with or without any person who may be representing any of them or assisting any of them in the presentation of his case); and

- (b) endeavour to bring about a settlement of the proceedings on terms that are fair to all parties.

(2) Nothing said or done in the course of any attempt to settle proceedings under this section shall subsequently be given in evidence in any proceedings nor shall the referee be thereby disqualified from hearing or continuing to hear the proceedings if he thinks fit to do so.

(3) Where proceedings are settled under this section, the referee may embody the terms of the settlement in an order.

Costs

24. A referee hearing proceedings shall not award costs, unless—

- (a) all parties to the proceedings were represented by legal practitioners, as defined in section 22 (6); or
- (b) he is of the opinion that there are special circumstances justifying the award of costs.

Reservation of question of law

25. (1) A referee hearing proceedings may reserve any question of law for the decision of the Supreme Court.

(2) Any costs arising from the reservation of any question under this section, including any costs incurred by the parties to the proceedings, shall be paid out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund and this subsection, without any further appropriation, shall be sufficient authority for any such payment.

Finality of proceedings

26. (1) An order made by a referee under this Act is final and binding on all parties to the proceedings in which the order is made and on all persons who under this Act could have become entitled to be joined as a party to the proceeding in which the order is made, and no appeal shall lie in respect thereof.

(2) No writ of certiorari, or prohibition, or other prerogative writ shall issue and no declaratory judgment shall be given in respect of proceedings taken or to be taken under this Act before a referee in respect of any order made therein unless the court before which such writ or judgment is sought is satisfied that the referee had or has no jurisdiction conferred by or under this Act to take the proceedings or that there has occurred therein a denial of natural justice to any party to the proceedings.

- (b) the owner or tenant may give notice of termination of the agreement to the other upon that ground.

(2) Where an owner gives notice of termination under this section, the period of notice shall be not less than 7 days.

(3) Where a tenant gives notice of termination under this section, the period of notice shall be not less than 2 days.

(4) Where notice of termination is given under this section in respect of an agreement that creates a tenancy for a fixed term, the notice is not ineffectual by reason of the fact that the day specified as the day on which the tenant is to, or will, deliver up possession of the premises is earlier than the last day of that term.

Effect of notice of termination of periodic tenancy

70. Notice of termination of an agreement that creates a periodic tenancy is not ineffectual by reason of the fact—

- (a) that the period of the notice, being not less than the period required under this Act, is less than that which would otherwise have been required at law; or
- (b) that the day specified as the day on which the tenant is to, or will, deliver up possession of the premises is not the last day of a period of the tenancy.

Application by owner for termination and order for possession

71. (1) Where an owner or a tenant under an agreement gives notice of termination to the other under this Act and the tenant fails to deliver up possession of the premises on the day specified, the owner may, within 30 days after that day, apply to a referee for an order terminating the agreement and an order for possession of the premises.

(2) Subject to this section, a referee shall, upon application under this section, make an order terminating the agreement and an order for possession of the premises, if he is satisfied—

- (a) that notice of termination was given by the owner or tenant to the other and that it complied with and was given in accordance with this Act; and
- (b) where the notice was given by the owner upon a particular ground prescribed by this Act, that the owner has established that ground and, in the case of notice upon the ground of a breach by the tenant of a term of the agreement, that the breach is in the circumstances of the case such as to justify termination of the agreement.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (2) the referee may—

(a) except where the premises the subject of the agreement are the principal place of residence of the owner, suspend the operation of orders made under that subsection for a period not exceeding 30 days, if he is satisfied that it is desirable to do so having regard to the relative hardship that would be caused—

(i) to the owner by suspending the orders; or

(ii) to the tenant by not suspending the orders; or

(b) refuse to make the orders under that subsection, if he is satisfied—

(i) that the owner was wholly or partly motivated to give the notice by the fact that the tenant had complained to a public authority or taken steps to secure or enforce his rights as a tenant;

(ii) in the case of notice given by the owner upon the ground of a breach by the tenant, that the tenant has remedied the breach, but in every case the referee shall take into account any previous breaches of the agreement by the tenant; or

(iii) in the case of notice given by the owner upon the ground referred to in section 69, that the consequences of the owner continuing to be bound by the agreement would not be unduly burdensome to the owner.

(4) Where in any proceedings upon an application under this section the referee is satisfied that the tenant had, within the period of 6 months before notice was given by the owner, complained to a public authority or taken steps to secure or enforce his rights as a tenant, the burden shall lie on the owner to prove that he was not wholly or partly motivated to give notice by that fact.

(5) Subject to subsection (3) (a), where the referee terminates an agreement and makes an order for possession of the premises under this section, he shall specify the day as from which the orders shall operate, being not more than 7 days after the day on which the orders are made.

(2) Subject to this section, a referee shall, upon application under this section, make an order terminating the agreement and an order for possession of the premises.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (2), except where the premises the subject of the agreement are the principal place of residence of the owner, the referee—

- (a) may suspend the operation of orders under that subsection for a period not exceeding 30 days, if he is satisfied that it is desirable to do so having regard to the relative hardship that would be caused—
 - (i) to the owner by suspending the orders; or
 - (ii) to the tenant by not suspending the orders; and
- (b) shall refuse to make the orders under that subsection where the term of the tenancy under the agreement is less than 90 days unless he is satisfied—
 - (i) that the owner genuinely proposed, at the time that he entered into the agreement, to use the premises after the expiration of the term for purposes inconsistent with the tenant continuing to occupy the premises; or
 - (ii) that the tenant of his own initiative sought a tenancy of a term of less than 90 days.

(4) Subject to subsection (3) (a), where the referee terminates an agreement and makes an order for possession of the premises under this section, he shall specify the day as from which the orders shall operate, being not more than 7 days after the day on which the orders are made.

(2) Where a referee terminates an agreement under this section, he shall also make an order for possession of the premises of immediate effect.

Termination of agreement where owner would otherwise suffer undue hardship

- (a) shall also make an order for possession of the premises and shall specify a day as from which the orders shall operate that he considers is, in the circumstances of the case, appropriate; and
