 - (b) current and former associated employees;
 - (c) former Fire Brigades Board employees; and
 - (d) current and former spouses or de facto partners of the persons referred to in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c).

[Section 5 amended by No. 26 of 1994 s. 7; No. 42 of 1998 s. 38; No. 38 of 2002 s. 69.]

6. Function and general powers of Superannuation Board

- (1) The function of the Superannuation Board is to administer, invest and manage the Superannuation Fund.
- (2) Subject to this Act the Superannuation Board may do all acts and things that are necessary or convenient to be done to enable it to perform its functions.
- (3) Without limiting the generality of subsection (2) the Superannuation Board may, subject to this Act —
 - (a) enter into and execute all deeds, contracts and documents that it may think expedient for the purpose of securing the benefits to be provided from the Superannuation Fund;
 - (b) appropriate any part of the Superannuation Fund (including the proceeds arising from any insurance or assurance policies) in full or part satisfaction of any duties or taxes;
 - (c) acquire or dispose of any property on such terms of payment as it thinks fit;

- (d) grant or take options or other pre-emptive rights for the sale, purchase or leasing of any property;
- (e) insure or re-insure any risks, contingencies or liabilities of the Superannuation Fund, the Superannuation Board, members of the Superannuation Board, or persons provided by the Authority under section 31 to assist the Superannuation Board, with or through such persons and on such terms and conditions as the Superannuation Board thinks fit;
- (f) subject to subsection (4), raise or borrow money at such rates of interest and on such terms and conditions as it thinks fit and either by way of fixed loan for a period of time or by way of bank overdraft on a fluctuating basis;
- (g) subject to subsection (4), incur liabilities of such amounts and on such terms and conditions as it thinks fit and provide and set aside out of the Superannuation Fund sufficient money for or towards the discharge or reduction of any encumbrance, debt or other liability affecting any part of the Superannuation Fund;
- (h) secure, guarantee, indemnify or support the performance of any obligation undertaken by it by securities of any nature over the whole or any part of the Superannuation Fund;
- (i) open and operate on accounts with bankers or other financial institutions and sign, draw, discount, accept and endorse cheques, bills and other negotiable instruments in such manner as it determines;
- (j) lease, let out or hire for such periods and at such rentals as it thinks fit any property forming part of the Superannuation Fund;
- (k) postpone the realization of any property forming part of the Superannuation Fund for so long as the Superannuation Board thinks fit even though the property may be of a speculative or wasting nature;

s. 6A

- (l) expend such amounts in the development and improvement of any property forming part of the Superannuation Fund as the Superannuation Board thinks fit.
- (4) The Superannuation Board may raise or borrow money under subsection (1) for the purpose of overcoming any cash flow problem in the payment of benefits under this Act, but for no other purpose.

[Section 6 amended by No. 19 of 1992 s. 5; No. 38 of 2002 s. 70.]

6A. Compliance with Commonwealth standards

- (1) The Superannuation Board —
 - (a) shall ensure that the Superannuation Fund complies with the Commonwealth standards so far as they apply to that Fund;
 - (b) shall comply with any requirement made in relation to the Superannuation Fund by the Commissioner under the Commonwealth Act;
 - (c) shall not, in relation to the administration, management or investment of the Superannuation Fund, do anything that is contrary to, or inconsistent with, the Commonwealth standards so far as they apply to the Superannuation Fund.
- (2) This section has effect notwithstanding any other provision of this Act.

[Section 6A inserted by No. 19 of 1992 s. 6.]

7. Power of investment

- (1) The Superannuation Board may invest the assets of the Superannuation Fund in any form of investment that it considers suitable.

- (2) The Superannuation Board may at any time and in its absolute discretion vary or transpose any investments or other applications of the Superannuation Fund for or into others authorised by this Act.
- (3) The Superannuation Board may underwrite or sub-underwrite any of the investments authorised by this Act.
- (4) Notwithstanding anything in this section, the Superannuation Board shall not lend any money from the Superannuation Fund to a member of that Fund, either directly or by means of an arrangement for lending money to a member of that Fund in the exercise of a power of investment under this section.

[Section 7 amended by No. 19 of 1992 s. 7; No. 1 of 1997 s. 18; No. 38 of 2002 s. 71.]

8. Investment policy

The Superannuation Board and every delegate of the Superannuation Board who at any time undertakes the investment of all or part of the Superannuation Fund shall have regard only to the best interests of the Superannuation Fund and its members in relation to the making of every such investment.

9. Power to insure

- (1) The Superannuation Board may —
 - (a) subject to the regulations, effect and maintain policies of all types of insurance or assurance to provide for any benefit or part of a benefit that may become payable from the Superannuation Fund; and
 - (b) pay out of the Superannuation Fund all premiums under or in respect of policies referred to in paragraph (a).
- (2) The powers conferred under this section are in addition to and extension of the powers conferred by sections 6 and 7.

[Section 9 amended by No. 26 of 1994 s. 8.]

s. 10

10. Superannuation Board to have powers of a trustee

Without limiting the generality of section 6 or 7 the Superannuation Board shall have the powers conferred by law on a trustee.

11. Discretionary exercise of powers

Subject to section 8 the powers conferred on the Superannuation Board under this Act or by any other law —

- (a) may be exercised by the Superannuation Board in such circumstances, in such manner and on such terms and conditions as the Superannuation Board thinks fit;
- (b) may be exercised by the Superannuation Board jointly with any other person and notwithstanding that by doing so the Superannuation Board may lose sole control of any of the investments or other applications of the Superannuation Fund or cause any part of the property of the Superannuation Fund to be intermingled with any other property; and
- (c) shall so far as they relate to the investment or other applications of the Superannuation Fund be exercisable by the Superannuation Board as if it were the absolute beneficial owner of the Superannuation Fund.

12. Power to make determinations

The Superannuation Board shall determine all questions or issues of doubt or difficulty in relation to —

- (a) the interpretation of any of the provisions of this Act relating to the Superannuation Fund;
- (b) the rights of the members of the Superannuation Fund under this Act; or
- (c) the management and administration of the Superannuation Fund or the performance of the functions conferred on the Superannuation Board.

13. Delegation

- (1) The Superannuation Board may, by instrument in writing delegate to any person any power or duty conferred or imposed on the Superannuation Board under this Act or any other Act.
- (2) A power or duty delegated under subsection (1) shall, when exercised or performed by the delegate in accordance with the instrument of delegation, be deemed, for the purposes of this Act, to have been exercised or performed by the Superannuation Board.

14. Appointment of investment managers

- (1) The Superannuation Board may appoint a person as an investment manager of the Superannuation Fund and, without limiting the generality of section 13, may delegate to an investment manager so appointed any of its powers and duties under this Act or any other Act as to the investment of the Superannuation Fund.
- (2) An investment manager may be appointed on such terms and at such remuneration as the Superannuation Board thinks fit.
- (3) The Superannuation Board may cause or permit the title to any property forming part of the Superannuation Fund to be registered in the name of an investment manager in trust.

15. Appointment of secretary

- (1) The Superannuation Board shall appoint a secretary of the Superannuation Board.
- (2) The secretary shall be appointed on such terms and at such remuneration as the Superannuation Board thinks fit.
- (3) The secretary shall perform such duties and have such powers as the Superannuation Board may from time to time determine.

s. 16

16. Appointment of actuary

- (1) The Superannuation Board shall appoint as the actuary to the Superannuation Fund any person who is, or any firm a member of which is, a Fellow of the Institute of Actuaries of Australia or any body formed in reconstruction of or in succession to that Institute.
- (2) The actuary shall be appointed on such terms and at such remuneration as the Superannuation Board thinks fit.

17. Actuarial review

- (1) On or before the day 3 years after the commencement of this Act and thereafter at intervals of not more than 3 years the Superannuation Board shall call on the actuary to conduct an actuarial review of the Superannuation Fund.
- (2) The Superannuation Board shall provide the actuary with such information as he may require to conduct an actuarial review under subsection (1), and shall do so in time to enable the actuary to comply with subsection (3a).
- (3) The actuary shall report to the Superannuation Board in writing the result of an actuarial review conducted under subsection (1).
- (3a) The report shall be made within the period of 12 months after the date as at which the review was made or within such other period as is prescribed.
- (4) The Superannuation Board shall provide the Authority and each associated employer (if any) with a copy of each report received by the Superannuation Board under subsection (3).

[Section 17 amended by No. 19 of 1992 s. 8; No. 42 of 1998 s. 38.]

18. Advice to Superannuation Board

The Superannuation Board may obtain the advice or opinion of any accountant, actuary, banker, legal practitioner, medical practitioner, stockbroker or other professional person and may Act on the advice or opinion of such a person irrespective of whether or not the advice or opinion has been sought by the Superannuation Board.

19. Records

The Superannuation Board shall ensure that a complete record is kept of —

- (a) all the members of the Superannuation Fund and all other persons becoming entitled to a benefit from the Superannuation Fund;
- (b) the deaths of members of the Superannuation Fund; and
- (c) all other things necessary for the proper administration of the Superannuation Fund.

 - (b) he resigns his office by notice in writing delivered to the Superannuation Board;
 - (c) he is removed from office under subclause (2) or (3);
 - (d) he becomes an insolvent under administration within the meaning of the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth;
 - (e) for more than 2 months he is absent without leave of the Superannuation Board from meetings of the Superannuation Board that he is entitled to attend;
 - (f) he fails to make a disclosure as required by clause 11;
 - (g) being an elected member of the Superannuation Board who is a member of the Superannuation Fund, he ceases to be a member of that fund.
- (2) The Authority may remove an appointed member from office for inability, inefficiency or misbehaviour.
- (3) An elected member of the Superannuation Board may be removed from office in accordance with the regulations.

7. Alternate members

- (1) An appointed member of the Superannuation Board who proposes to be absent from a meeting of the Superannuation Board may, in writing, nominate an appointed alternate member of the Superannuation Board to attend that meeting in his place and the alternate member so nominated is entitled to attend that meeting.
- (2) If an appointed member of the Superannuation Board is absent from a meeting of the Superannuation Board and does not make a nomination under subclause (1) the Authority may nominate an appointed alternate member of the Superannuation Board to attend that meeting and the alternate member so nominated is entitled to attend that meeting.

- (3) If for any reason an appointed member of the Superannuation Board vacates his office before the expiry of the period for which he was appointed, the Authority may nominate an appointed alternate member of the Superannuation Board to attend meetings of the Superannuation Board and the alternate member so nominated is, until the vacancy is filled, entitled to receive notice of and attend every meeting of the Superannuation Board.
- (4) An elected member who proposes to be absent from a meeting of the Superannuation Board may, in writing, nominate an elected alternate member to attend that meeting in his or her place and the alternate member so nominated is entitled to attend that meeting.
- (5) If an elected member is absent from a meeting of the Superannuation Board and does not make a nomination under subclause (4) the other elected members of the Superannuation Board may nominate an elected alternate member to attend that meeting and the alternate member so nominated is entitled to attend that meeting.
- (5a) If for any reason an elected member vacates office before the expiry of the period for which the member was appointed, the other elected members may nominate an elected alternate member to attend meetings of the Board and the alternate member so nominated is, until the vacancy is filled, entitled to receive notice of and attend every meeting of the Superannuation Board.
- (6) An alternate member attending a meeting of the Superannuation Board in accordance with this clause has all the powers and duties of a member of the Superannuation Board.

8. Meetings of a Board

- (1) The chairman of the Superannuation Board shall preside at all meetings of the Superannuation Board at which he is present but, if a chairman is not elected or the chairman is not present at a meeting, the members of the Superannuation Board present may elect one of their number to preside.
- (2) The Superannuation Board shall hold such meetings as are necessary for the performance of its functions.
- (3) The secretary of the Superannuation Board may convene a meeting of the Superannuation Board at any time and shall on request in writing by a member of the Superannuation Board convene such a meeting before the expiration of 30 days after the receipt of the request.

- (4) The secretary of the Superannuation Board shall notify each member of the Superannuation Board of the time, date, and place of every meeting and adjourned meeting of the Superannuation Board.
- (5) Questions arising at a meeting of the Superannuation Board shall be determined by a majority of the votes of the members of the Superannuation Board.
- (6) In the case of an equality of votes on a question the person presiding at the meeting shall not have a second or casting vote and the question shall be deemed to have been resolved in the negative.
- (7) The Superannuation Board shall cause to be kept a record of the proceedings of its meetings.
- (8) Subject to this Act, the Superannuation Board may regulate its own procedure.

9. Quorum

- (1) Subject to subclauses (2) and (3) the quorum for a meeting of the Superannuation Board shall be not less than 4 members of whom not less than 2 shall be appointed members and not less than 2 shall be elected members.
- (2) If a quorum is not present at a meeting of the Superannuation Board, the meeting shall be adjourned for 1 week and if a quorum is not then present, the meeting shall be further adjourned for 1 week and, if a quorum is not then present, the members who are present shall, notwithstanding subclause (1), constitute a quorum for the purposes of the meeting.
- (3) If as a result of vacancies in the offices of members of the Superannuation Board it is not possible to obtain a quorum for a meeting of the Superannuation Board, the remaining members or member may Act for the purpose of —
 - (a) paying benefits from the Superannuation Fund;
 - (b) calling a meeting of members of the Superannuation Fund; or
 - (c) conducting an election of one, or more than one, elected member of the Superannuation Board, but for no other purpose.

10. Performance of functions by resolution

- (1) A resolution in writing, signed by all members of the Superannuation Board for the time being entitled to receive notice of a meeting of the Superannuation Board, shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at the meeting of the Superannuation Board duly convened and held.
- (2) A resolution under subclause (1) may consist of several documents in like form, each signed by one or more members of the Superannuation Board.

11. Disclosure of interest

- (1) A member of the Superannuation Board who has a direct or indirect pecuniary interest in a matter that is being or is about to be considered by the Superannuation Board, otherwise than as a member of and in common with other members of the Superannuation Fund —
 - (a) shall, as soon as possible after the relevant facts have come to his knowledge, disclose the nature of his interest at a meeting of the Superannuation Board;
 - (b) shall not take part in any deliberation or decision of the Superannuation Board with respect to that matter.

Penalty: $500.

- (2) A disclosure made under subclause (1)(a) at a meeting of the Superannuation Board shall be recorded in the record of proceedings of the Superannuation Board.
- (3) For the purposes of clauses 7(1) and (4) and 9, a member who is precluded under subclause (1)(b) from taking part in any deliberation or decision of the Superannuation Board with respect to a matter shall be deemed to be absent from the meeting while that matter is being deliberated or decided upon.

12. Common seal

- (1) The form of the common seal of the Superannuation Board shall be determined by the Superannuation Board.

Schedule 2

- (2) The common seal of the Superannuation Board shall not be used except upon the resolution of the Superannuation Board.
- (3) The common seal of the Superannuation Board shall only be affixed to an instrument in the presence of 2 members and the instrument shall be signed by those 2 members.

13. Allowances

There shall be paid to the members of the Superannuation Board such allowances as the Minister may, on the recommendation of the Superannuation Board approve.

14. Indemnity

No liability shall attach to the Superannuation Board or to a member of the Superannuation Board for any Act or omission that occurred in good faith and in the exercise or purported exercise of their or his powers or in the discharge or purported discharge of their or his duties under this Act.

[Schedule 2 amended by No. 26 of 1994 s. 18; No. 42 of 1998 s. 38; No. 10 of 2001 s. 221.]

Part 3 — Transitional and consequential provisions

19. Interpretation

- (1) In this Part, unless the contrary intention appears —
- “commencement day” means the day on which this Act comes into operation;
 - “former Board” means the Western Australian Fire Brigades Disablement Benefits Board established under the repealed Part;
 - “former Fund” means the Western Australian Fire Brigades Disablement Benefits Fund established under the repealed Part;
 - “repealed Part” means the Part repealed by section 10;
 - “Superannuation Board” means the Western Australian Fire Brigades Superannuation Board established under section 4 of the principal Act;
 - “Superannuation Fund” means the Western Australian Fire Brigades Superannuation Fund established under section 5 of the principal Act.

20. Transfer of assets and liabilities

On the commencement day, by virtue of this section —

- (a) all assets standing to the credit of or forming part of the former Fund stand to the credit of or form part of the Superannuation Fund without the need for any conveyance, transfer, assignment or assurance;
- (b) all rights and liabilities of the former Board, including contingent liabilities, become rights and liabilities of the Superannuation Board;
- (c) a claim for any benefits from the former Fund that had not been finally dealt with immediately before the commencement day may be dealt with as if it were a claim for benefits from the Superannuation Fund under the principal Act;
- (d) the rights, obligations and entitlements of persons who were members of the former Fund are taken to be rights, obligations and entitlements of those persons as members of the Superannuation Fund;
- (e) any policy of insurance, agreement or instrument to which the former Board is a party and which relates to the administration of the former Fund has effect, by force of this section, as if the Superannuation Board were substituted for the former Board as a party to the policy, instrument or agreement;
- (f) all proceedings commenced before the commencement day by or against the former Board and pending immediately before the commencement day are to be taken to be proceedings pending by or against the Superannuation Board; and
- (g) anything done or omitted to be done in relation to the assets, rights and liabilities referred to in paragraphs (a), (b), (c) and (d) before the commencement day by, to or in respect of the former Board (to the extent that that thing has any force or effect) is to be taken to have been done or omitted by, to or in respect of the Superannuation Board.

21. Records

The Superannuation Board becomes, on the commencement day, the owner of all registers, documents, books and other records (however compiled, recorded or stored) relating to the former Fund, and of any tape, disc or other device or medium relating to such records.

22. Exemption from Stamp Act 1921

Notwithstanding anything in the Stamp Act 1921, no duty is payable under that Act in respect of the passing of any assets under this Part.

23. Registration of documents

- (1) The Registrar of Titles, the Registrar of Deeds, the Minister administering the Land Act 1933, and any other person authorised by a written law to record and give effect to the registration of documents relating to transactions affecting any estate or interest in land or other property, are to take notice of the provisions of this Part and are empowered to record and register in the appropriate manner such of those documents as are necessary to give effect to this Part.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1) a statement in an instrument executed by the Superannuation Board that any estate or interest in land or other property stands to the credit of or is part of the Superannuation Fund under section 20 is evidence of that fact.

24. Report

- (1) Notwithstanding section 10, the former Board is to report in respect of the former Fund under section 66 of the Financial Administration and Audit Act 1985 in respect of the period between 1 July 1993 and the commencement day as soon as practicable after the commencement day, and the former Board is continued in existence for that purpose.
- (2) A report prepared under subsection (1) is deemed to be an annual report for the purposes of section 69 of the Financial Administration and Audit Act 1985.

³ The Fire and Emergency Services Authority of Western Australia (Consequential Provisions) Act 1998 s. 38, which gives effect to Sch. 1 reads:

Part 4 — Miscellaneous amendments

38. Miscellaneous amendments

The Acts mentioned in Schedule 1 are amended as set out in that Schedule.

Schedule 1, clause 13 reads as follows:

- (13) Despite the amendments made to section 4 of the Fire Brigades Superannuation Act 1985 by subclause (12), a person appointed and holding office under that section immediately before the commencement of this clause as a member or alternate member of the Western Australian Fire Brigades Superannuation Board continues, subject to that Act, to hold that office on and after that commencement for the remainder of the period for which the person was appointed.

”.
