REFERENDUMS.

No. 83 of 1983.

AN ACT relating to the submission of questions to the electors of the State.

[Assented to 22 December 1983.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and the Legislative Assembly of Western Australia, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

PART I—PRELIMINARY.

1. This Act may be cited as the Referendums Act Short title. 1983.

Interpretation.

2. (1) In this Act, unless the contrary intention appears—

“authorized manner” in relation to the marking of a vote on a ballot paper used for a referendum means a manner of marking—

(a) prescribed in section 16 (2);

(b) prescribed in the Act by which the referendum is authorized or required;

or

(c) directed on the ballot paper,

as the case may require;

“Chief Electoral Officer” means the person for the time being appointed to that office for the purposes of the Electoral Act 1907 and includes a person exercising or discharging the powers, functions and duties of the Chief Electoral Officer;

“Clerk of the Writs” means the Clerk of the Writs appointed under section 63 of the Electoral Act 1907 and includes the Deputy Clerk of the Writs so appointed when he is acting in place of the Clerk of the Writs;

“District” means an electoral district for the election of a member of the Legislative Assembly;

“election” means an election of members of the Legislative Assembly or of the Legislative Council under the Electoral Act 1907;

“electors” means the electors qualified to vote for the election of members of the Legislative Assembly according to the provisions of the Electoral Act 1907;

“officer” means an officer appointed under this Act or whose appointment has effect for the purposes of this Act;

“paragraph” means a paragraph of the section or subsection in which the term is used;

“referendum” means the submission of a question to the electors pursuant to an Act but does not include any election under the Electoral Act 1907;

“referendum as to a Bill” means a referendum on the question for the approval or otherwise of a Bill for an Act that has been passed by both Houses of Parliament;

“Returning Officer” means the Returning Officer for a District appointed for the purposes of the Electoral Act 1907 and includes a person exercising or discharging the powers, functions and duties of the Returning Officer;

“section” means a section of this Act;

“subsection” means a subsection of the section in which the term is used.

(2) A reference in this Act to the holding of a referendum on the same day as an election is a reference to the votes of the electors for the purposes of a referendum being taken on the day on which the polling at an election is conducted.

3. (1) Where pursuant to this Act any provision of the Electoral Act 1907 applies to or in relation to a referendum or to or in relation to any act, matter or thing pertaining to a referendum or done or to be done pursuant to this Act—

Construction of applied
provisions.

(a) the provision shall so apply mutatis mutandis subject to such modifications, additions or deletions, if any, as are prescribed by this Act or by regulations made under this Act; and

- (b) any regulation, order or other statutory instrument made under or for the purposes of that provision shall so apply in like manner.

(2) In the application of any provision, regulation, order or statutory instrument as referred to in subsection (1)—

- (a) a reference to a polling day shall be read as a reference to the day fixed for the taking of the votes of the electors for the purposes of a referendum;
- (b) a reference to a poll shall be read as a reference to the taking of the votes of the electors for the purposes of a referendum;
- (c) a reference to the close of nominations shall be read—
 - (i) where a referendum is held on the same day as an election, as a reference to the time of the close of nominations for the election;
 - (ii) in any other case, as a reference to 12 o'clock noon on the day that is 14 days after the day on which the writ for a referendum is issued;
- (d) a reference to electoral matter or to electoral papers shall be read as a reference to corresponding matter or papers in relation to a referendum.

(3) Notwithstanding any provision or regulation referred to in subsection (1) a ballot paper used for the purposes of a referendum shall not be rejected as informal except for a reason specified in this Act or regulations made under this Act.

PART II—THE WRIT FOR A REFERENDUM.

4. (1) Whenever—

Issue of writ.

- (a) an Order in Council is made under the Constitution Act 1889 fixing the day for the taking of the votes of the electors for the purposes of a referendum as to a Bill; or
- (b) a referendum is otherwise authorized or required by any Act, the Governor may, by warrant under his hand, direct the Clerk of the Writs to issue a writ for the referendum.

(2) Before any warrant is issued under subsection (1) 14 days' notice of the intention to issue the warrant shall be published in the Gazette.

(3) On receipt of a warrant under subsection (1) the Clerk of the Writs shall forthwith cause a writ for the referendum to be issued.

(4) The writ shall be deemed to have been issued at 6 o'clock in the afternoon of the day on which it was issued.

5. (1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3) the writ for a referendum shall be in the prescribed form and shall fix—

Form of writ.

- (a) the day for the taking of the votes of the electors; and
- (b) the day for the return of the writ.

(2) The day fixed pursuant to subsection (1) (a) shall be a Saturday other than Easter Saturday or the Saturday immediately preceding or succeeding Easter Saturday.

(3) Subsection (1) (a) does not apply to the writ where the day for the taking of the votes of the electors is fixed by or under the Act by which the referendum is authorized or required.

Address of writ and action on receipt.

6. (1) The writ for a referendum shall be addressed to the Chief Electoral Officer.

(2) On the receipt of the writ the Chief Electoral Officer shall—

(a) indorse on the writ the date of receipt by him;

(b) advertise the receipt and particulars of the writ—

(i) in the Gazette; and

(ii) in a newspaper circulating in the State, or by placards or otherwise;

and

(c) forward a copy of the writ to the Returning Officer for each District.

Arrangements for taking votes.

7. For the purposes of a referendum—

(a) the Chief Electoral Officer shall, as soon as practicable after the receipt of the writ, advertise the places at which the votes of the electors will be taken in a newspaper circulating in the State, or by placards or otherwise, and shall make all arrangements that are necessary to be made by him for taking the votes of the electors;

(b) each Returning Officer shall make all arrangements that are necessary to be made by him for taking the votes of the electors in his District.

8. In the case of a referendum as to a Bill—

Additional action in case of referendum
as to a Bill.

- (a) the Governor may, by his warrant under section 4 (1), direct the Clerk of the Writs to attach to the writ a copy of the Bill, or a copy of a statement setting out—

- (i) the text of the Bill;
(ii) the text of the particular provisions (if any) of any Act proposed to be textually altered by the Bill, and the textual alterations proposed to be made therein, and the Clerk of the Writs shall give effect to that direction;

- (b) the Chief Electoral Officer shall cause a summary of the provisions of the Bill to be published in the Gazette when he advertises the receipt and particulars of the writ under section 6 (2) (b) (i);
(c) the Chief Electoral Officer shall attach a copy of the Bill, or of the statement (if any) attached to the writ, to each copy of the writ that he forwards to a Returning Officer under section 6 (2) (c).

9. (1) In the case of a referendum as to a Bill, if within 4 weeks after the passage of the Bill through both Houses of Parliament there is forwarded to the Chief Electoral Officer—

Arguments in relation to referendum
question.

- (a) an argument in favour of the Bill, complying with such conditions or requirements as may be prescribed, and authorized by a majority of those members of both Houses with whose concurrence the Bill was passed who desire to forward such an argument; or
(b) an argument against the Bill, complying with such conditions or requirements as may be prescribed, and authorized by a majority of those members of both Houses who voted against the Bill and desire to forward such an argument, the Chief Electoral Officer shall cause the argument to be printed and distributed to electors or otherwise cause the argument to be brought to the notice of electors.

(2) Where arguments are forwarded under each of paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (1) the Chief Electoral Officer shall cause the same action to be taken under subsection (1) in respect of each argument.

(3) In the case of a referendum other than a referendum as to a Bill, if before the expiration of the period ending 7 days after the day of the issue of the writ there is forwarded to the Chief Electoral Officer an argument in favour of the marking of ballot papers used for the referendum in a particular authorized manner complying with such conditions and requirements as may be prescribed and authorized by members of Parliament the Chief Electoral Officer shall, subject to subsection (4), cause the argument to be printed and distributed to electors or otherwise cause the argument to be brought to the notice of electors.

(4) Where two or more arguments are received in accordance with subsection (3) in relation to the same authorized manner of marking ballot papers the Chief Electoral Officer shall cause action to be taken under subsection (3) in respect of the argument that was authorized by the greater or greatest number of members or, where two or more such arguments were authorized by an equal number of members (which number was greater than the number of members by whom any other such argument was authorized), in respect of such one of those arguments as is decided by the Chief Electoral Officer by the drawing of lots.

(5) In the case of a referendum other than a referendum as to a Bill the Chief Electoral Officer may, in respect of each authorized manner in which votes may be marked on a ballot paper used for the referendum in relation to which no argument has been received in accordance with subsection (3), invite a body, corporate or unincorporate, to forward to him an argument in favour of the marking of ballot papers in that authorized manner and, if before the expiration of 21 days after the day of the issue of the writ a body to which an invitation has been so issued forwards to the Chief Electoral Officer an argument complying with such conditions or requirements as may be prescribed or as may be specified in the invitation, the Chief Electoral Officer shall cause the argument to be printed and distributed to electors or otherwise cause the argument to be brought to the notice of electors.

(6) Subject to subsection (4), where arguments are forwarded under subsection (4) or (5) in respect of more than one authorized manner of marking votes the Chief Electoral Officer shall cause the same action to be taken in respect of each argument.

PART III—VOTING AT A REFERENDUM.

10. The voting at a referendum shall, subject to this Part, be taken throughout the State on the day fixed for the taking of the votes of the electors—

Voting on same day.

- (a) by or under the Act by which the referendum is authorized or required; or
- (b) by the writ,

as the case may be.

11. Sections 90, 92, 93 (4) and 94 to 99B (both inclusive) of the Electoral Act 1907 shall apply to and in relation to a referendum as if it were an election.

Provisions of Electoral Act as to postal,
absent
voting etc.
to apply.

12. The polling places appointed from time to time under subsection (1) of section 100 of the Electoral Act 1907 shall be places for the taking of the votes of the electors at a referendum and declarations in force from time to time under paragraph (d) or (e) of that subsection shall have effect for the purposes of a referendum.

Polling places.

Rolls.

13. At a referendum the electoral roll under the Electoral Act 1907 that would be used in respect of a District if the referendum were an election shall be used in respect of that District for the purposes of the referendum.

Voting entitlement.

14. (1) At a referendum only those electors who would be entitled to vote if the referendum were an election shall be admitted to vote.

(2) Each elector shall vote only once at a referendum.

(3) Nothing in this section entitles a person to vote if he is disqualified from voting.

Question to be submitted to electors.

15. (1) Subject to subsection (2), in the case of a referendum as to a Bill the question to be submitted to the electors shall be—

“ Do you approve of the Bill entitled (the title of the Bill)? ”.

(2) References in the title of the Bill to the amendment of Acts or other written laws may be omitted from the question if the title also describes the subject-matter of the Bill in another manner.

(3) In the case of a referendum other than a referendum as to a Bill the question to be submitted to the electors shall be the question prescribed in the Act by which the referendum is authorized or required.

(4) No question shall be submitted to the electors on the same day as a referendum except by way of another referendum or an election.

Voting to be by ballot.

16. (1) The voting at a referendum shall be by ballot.

(2) In the case of a referendum as to a Bill each elector shall mark his vote on the ballot paper—

- (a) if he approves of the Bill—by placing the word “Yes” in the space provided on the ballot paper; or
- (b) if he does not approve of the Bill—by placing the word “No” in the space provided on the ballot paper.

(3) In the case of a referendum other than a referendum as to a Bill each elector shall mark his vote on the ballot paper in the manner prescribed in the Act by which the referendum is authorized or required that gives effect to his intention or, if the manners of marking votes are not so prescribed, in the manner directed on the ballot paper that gives effect to his intention.

17. (1) The ballot papers to be used at a referendum shall be in accordance with the prescribed form or forms. Ballot papers.

(2) Different forms of ballot paper may be prescribed—

- (a) for voting of different kinds; and
- (b) for different referendums or referendums of different kinds.

(3) Where 2 or more referendums are held on the same day, it shall not be necessary for the forms of ballot paper for each referendum to be on separate pieces of paper, but 2 or more forms of ballot paper which may be used by any one elector may be on one piece of paper in accordance with a prescribed form, in which case it shall not be necessary for the signature or initials of the presiding officer to appear more than once on the piece of paper, and any ground of informality that relates only to a particular ballot paper and vote shall not affect the validity of any other ballot paper or vote.

Provisions
of Electoral Act as to ordinary voting etc.
to apply.

18. Sections 100A, 100B, 102, 102A (2) and (3), 103 to 112 (both inclusive), 114 (3), 115 to 127 (both inclusive), 129 to 133 (both inclusive) and 156 of the Electoral Act 1907 shall apply to and in relation to a referendum as if it were an election.

Simultaneous poll for

19. Where a referendum is held or to be held on the same day as an election—

- (a) an application for a postal ballot paper or for permission to vote as an absent voter or under section 122A of the Electoral Act 1907 shall be deemed to include a corresponding application in respect of the referendum and any reference in the application to the election shall be deemed to include a reference to the referendum;
- (b) a declaration that enables an elector to vote under any provision of the Electoral Act 1907 at the election enables him to vote under that provision at the referendum and any reference in the declaration to the election shall be deemed to include a reference to the referendum;
- (c) subject to paragraph (d) a determination of entitlement to vote at the election determines the entitlement to vote at the referendum;
- (d) the answers by a person claiming to vote to the questions put to him pursuant to section 119 of the Electoral Act 1907 may be accepted as sufficient to enable him to vote at the referendum, if they are satisfactory as regards the election, but the presiding officer may if he thinks fit, in addition to the questions prescribed by that section, put to the person the following question:

“ Have you already voted here or elsewhere at this referendum? (or these referendums? as the case may be). ”

and, if the person does not answer the question or admits that he has already voted at the referendum or referendums, shall refuse to allow him to vote;

- (e) the same ballot boxes and polling booths may be used for the purposes of the referendum but in that case the ballot papers for the referendum shall be of a different colour to the colour of the ballot papers for the election;
- (f) a ballot paper used at the referendum shall, if it is required to be placed in an envelope by a voter, be placed in the same envelope as the ballot paper used at the election;
- (g) the copies of the rolls supplied to the Returning Officer and delivered to presiding officers for the purposes of the election pursuant to section 112 of the Electoral Act 1907 shall be used for the purposes of the referendum; and
- (h) appointments made under any provision of the Electoral Act 1907 for the purposes of the election shall have effect under that provision for the purposes of the referendum.

20. (1) A group of members of Parliament or body with whose authority or by which an argument has been forwarded to the Minister under section 9 (1) or (3) may appoint one scrutineer to represent them or it at each place, or section of a place if divided, at which the votes of electors are being taken while those votes are being taken.

Scrutineers
at polling.

(2) The appointment of a scrutineer under subsection (1) shall be made by written notice to the Returning Officer or presiding officer, signed on behalf of the group of members of Parliament or body, giving the name and address of the scrutineer, or without such notice by permission of the Returning Officer or presiding officer.

PART IV—ASCERTAINMENT OF RESULT OF REFERENDUM.

Interpretation of this Part.

21. In this Part—

“officer conducting the count” means the Chief Electoral Officer or a Returning Officer or Assistant Returning Officer, as the case may be;

“the poll” means the taking of the votes of the electors for the purposes of a referendum.

Scrutiny
and count of votes.

22. (1) The result of a referendum shall be ascertained by scrutiny and count of the votes in accordance with this Act.

(2) The following provisions apply to the scrutiny and count of votes—

- (a) the scrutineers (if any) and officers may be present but no other person;
- (b) where the count is not commenced immediately after the close of the poll the scrutineers (if any) shall be informed in writing by the officer conducting the count as regards the time and place when and where the count will be commenced and conducted by him;
- (c) all the proceedings at the count shall be subject to the inspection of the scrutineers (if any);
- (d) all informal votes shall be marked “informal” and rejected and the number recorded;
- (e) the count may, from time to time, be adjourned as the officer conducting the count may deem necessary, until it has been duly completed;

- (f) each adjournment shall be announced to the scrutineers (if any) and officers by the officer conducting the count and the time and place for the continuation of the count shall be in a similar manner made known to them;
- (g) before each adjournment all ballot papers and other documents connected with the count shall be placed in one or more ballot boxes, and then—
 - (i) the officer conducting the count shall in the presence of the scrutineers (if any) and officers, seal the ballot box or boxes with his official seal (if any) or with his private seal;
 - (ii) any scrutineer who so desires shall be permitted by the officer conducting the count to place his special seal on the ballot box or boxes; and
 - (iii) the cleft of each ballot box shall be closed and sealed unless the ballot box is provided with an outer cover without a cleft;
- (h) before recommencing the count after an adjournment the seals mentioned in paragraph (g) shall be exhibited unbroken to the scrutineers (if any) and officers.

(3) Where a referendum is held on the same day as an election any information given or announcement made in relation to the election pursuant to a provision of the Electoral Act 1907 corresponding to subsection (2) (b) or (f) shall have effect in relation to the referendum.

23. (1) A group of members of Parliament or body with whose authority or by which an argument has been forwarded to the Minister under section 9 (1) or (3) may appoint one scrutineer to represent them or it at the scrutiny and count of votes at any counting place.

Scrutineers
at count.

(2) The appointment of a scrutineer under subsection (1) shall be made by written notice to the officer conducting the count, signed on behalf of the group of members of Parliament or body, giving the name and address of the scrutineer.

(3) If a scrutineer appointed under subsection (1) objects to a ballot paper as informal the officer conducting the count shall mark the ballot paper "admitted" or "rejected" according to his decision to admit or reject the ballot paper, and initial such marking, but nothing in this subsection prevents the officer from rejecting any ballot paper as being informal although it is not objected to.

Informal
papers.

24. (1) A ballot paper shall be informal if—

- (a) it is not initialled by the presiding officer, or, in the case of a postal ballot paper, not initialled by the issuing officer, but where a ballot paper is not initialled by the presiding officer or the issuing officer, if there is a water mark as prescribed by the regulations under the Electoral Act 1907 in the paper of the ballot paper the fact that it is not so initialled shall not of itself render the ballot paper informal; or
- (b) the elector has failed to mark his vote on it in an authorized manner.

(2) Notwithstanding anything in this Act or any other Act or any directions on a ballot paper where a ballot paper clearly indicates the elector's intention and is not informal under subsection (1) (a) that ballot paper—

- (a) shall not be informal by reason of the elector having marked his vote on it otherwise than in an authorized manner; and
- (b) shall be deemed for the purposes of this Part, and of the Act by which the referendum is authorized or required, to have on it a vote marked in the authorized manner that gives effect to the elector's intention.

(3) The decision of the officer conducting the count to admit a ballot paper or to reject a ballot paper shall, subject to section 29, be final and subject only to reversal by the Supreme Court under Part VI of this Act.

25. (1) The Minister may appoint Assistant Returning Officers to count, at counting places appointed by the Minister, the votes of electors of a District taken at any place or places if, in the opinion of the Chief Electoral Officer, the appointment will expedite the ascertainment of the result of the referendum.

Appointment of Assistant Returning Officers and counting places to expedite count.

(2) Where a referendum is held on the same day as an election, appointments of Assistant Returning Officers and counting places under the Electoral Act 1907 to expedite the ascertainment of the result of the election shall have effect for the purposes of the referendum.

26. (1) As soon as practicable after the close of the poll each Assistant Returning Officer shall—

Procedure for Assistant Returning Officers.

(a) open all ballot boxes received at his counting place and count all the votes on the ballot papers, rejecting all informal ballot papers, and ascertain the number of votes marked, respectively, in each of the authorized manners;

(b) enclose—

- (i) in one packet, all the used ballot papers in his possession;
- (ii) in another packet, all the unused ballot papers in his possession; and
- (iii) in another packet, all copies of rolls, books, communications from officers, or other papers or documents used or received at or in connection with the referendum, that are in his possession; and

(c) seal up those packets, indorse each with a description of its contents and with the name of the counting place and the date of the poll, sign the indorsement, and forward the packets to the Returning Officer for the District together with a statement certifying—

(i) the number of votes marked, respectively, in each of the authorized manners; and

(ii) the number of ballot papers rejected as informal.

(2) The packet mentioned in subsection (1) (b) (i) shall be sealed before the scrutineers (if any) present and any scrutineer who desires to do so shall be permitted by the Assistant Returning Officer to affix his seal on the packet.

(3) The statement prepared under subsection (1) (c) shall be verified by the signature of the Assistant Returning Officer and also by the signatures of such of the scrutineers (if any) as are present and consent to sign it.

(4) Where a referendum is held on the same day as an election subsection (1) (b) (iii) does not apply to papers or documents that apply to both the referendum and the election.

Procedure
for Returning
Officers.

27. (1) As soon as practicable after the close of the poll the Returning Officer for each District shall—

(a) open all ballot boxes received from polling places within the District that have not been opened by an Assistant Returning Officer and count all the votes on the ballot papers, rejecting all informal ballot papers, and ascertain the number of votes marked, respectively, in each of the authorized manners;

(b) enclose—

- (i) in one packet, all the used ballot papers in his possession;
- (ii) in another packet, all the unused ballot papers in his possession; and
- (iii) in another packet all copies of rolls, books, communications from officers, or other papers or documents used or received at or in connection with the referendum, that are in his possession, other than those that have been forwarded to him under section 26 (1) (c);

(c) seal up those packets, indorse each with a description of its contents and with the name of the District and the date of the poll, and sign the indorsement;

(d) prepare a statement certifying—

- (i) the number of votes marked, respectively, in each of the authorized manners; and
- (ii) the number of ballot papers rejected as informal;

(e) enclose—

- (i) in one packet, all the packets made up under section 26 (1) (b) (i) and forwarded to him under section 26 (1) (c), the statements forwarded to him with those packets, the packet made up by him under paragraph (b) (i) and the statement prepared by him under paragraph (d);

- (ii) in another packet, all the packets made up under section 26 (1) (b) (ii) and forwarded to him under section 26 (1) (c) and the packet made up by him under paragraph (b) (ii); and
 - (iii) in another packet, all the packets made up under section 26 (1) (b) (iii) and forwarded to him under section 26 (1) (c) and the packet made up by him under paragraph (b) (iii); and
 - (f) seal up those packets, indorse each with a description of its contents and with the name of the District and the date of the poll, sign the indorsement, and forward the packets to the Chief Electoral Officer.
- (2) The packets mentioned in subsection (1) (b) (i) and (e) (i), respectively, shall be sealed before the scrutineers (if any) present and any scrutineer who desires to do so shall be permitted by the Returning Officer to affix his seal on any such packet.
- (3) The statement prepared under subsection (1) (d) shall be verified by the signature of the Returning Officer and also by the signatures of such of the scrutineers (if any) as are present and consent to sign it.
- (4) Where a referendum is held on the same day as an election subsection (1) (b) (iii) and (e) (iii) do not apply to papers or documents that relate to both the referendum and the election.

Appointment of Assistant Returning
Officers to count
postal,
absent
votes etc.

28. (1) Section 142A of the Electoral Act 1907 shall apply in relation to a referendum as if it were an election.

(2) Where a referendum is held on the same day as an election appointments of Assistant Returning Officers under section 142A of the Electoral Act 1907 for the purposes of the election shall have effect for the purposes of the referendum.

29. (1) At any time before indorsing the writ for a referendum pursuant to section 30 the Chief Electoral Officer may, if he thinks fit (and shall if so directed by the Governor), direct a re-count of any ballot papers. Re-count.

(2) The officer conducting a re-count shall have the same powers as if the re-count were the scrutiny, and may reverse any decision in relation to the scrutiny as to the allowance or admission or disallowance or rejection of any ballot paper.

PART V—RETURN OF WRIT AND STATEMENT OF RESULT OF REFERENDUM.

30. (1) After the Chief Electoral Officer has received from each of the Returning Officers the statement referred to in section 27 (1) (d) and the postal vote ballot papers, absent vote ballot papers and ballot papers mentioned in section 122A of the Electoral Act 1907 (as applied to the referendum by section 18) have been counted, the Chief Electoral Officer shall indorse on the original writ a statement showing as regards each District and as regards the whole State— Return of writ and
publication of statement.

- (a) the number of votes marked, respectively, in each of the authorized manners; and
- (b) the number of ballot papers rejected as informal, and shall sign the statement and return the writ to the Clerk of the Writs who shall transmit it to the Governor.

(2) The day on which the writ was indorsed under subsection (1) shall be deemed to be the day of the return thereof.

(3) The Chief Electoral Officer shall cause a copy of the statement indorsed on the writ under subsection (1) to be published in the Gazette, and the statement so published shall, subject to this Act, be conclusive evidence of the result of the referendum.

(4) Where the Chief Electoral Officer is satisfied that the votes—

- (a) on any ballot papers issued at some remote place in connection with the referendum, which have not been received by him; and
- (b) on any postal vote ballot papers, absent vote ballot papers or ballot papers mentioned in section 122A of the Electoral Act 1907 (as applied to the referendum by section 18), which have not been received by him, cannot, having regard to the number of those ballot papers, possibly affect the result of the referendum he may indorse a statement on the writ under subsection (1) (including in that statement the number of those ballot papers), return the writ under subsection (1), and publish a copy of the statement under subsection (3), without awaiting the receipt of those ballot papers.

Validity of
referendum.

31. Sections 148 and 149 of the Electoral Act 1907 shall apply in relation to a referendum as if it were an election.

Retention,
production
and destruction
of papers.

32. (1) Any member of Parliament may give notice to any Returning Officer requiring production of the rolls used by him and any Assistant Returning Officers at a referendum, and if the notice is so given after the day of the referendum and before the day when the referendum can no longer be questioned those rolls shall be produced to that member as soon as is practicable.

(2) Such books, documents, ballot papers and other papers used for or in connection with a referendum as may be required by the Supreme Court under Part VI of this Act shall, upon an order of the Court, be produced by the Chief Electoral Officer, but shall not be available for any other purpose.

(3) All books, documents, ballot papers and other papers used for or in connection with a referendum may, when the referendum can be no longer questioned, be destroyed by the Chief Electoral Officer, or with his approval, by any Returning Officer or Registrar.

(4) Sections 153 and 155 of the Electoral Act 1907 shall apply in relation to a referendum as if it were an election.

PART VI—DISPUTED RETURNS.

33. (1) Any question respecting the validity of a referendum, or of any return or statement showing the voting on any referendum, may be referred by resolution of the Legislative Council or of the Legislative Assembly, within 14 sitting days of the House making the reference after the publication in the Gazette of the copy of the statement signed by the Chief Electoral Officer under section 30 (1), to the Supreme Court, and the Supreme Court shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine the question.

Reference to Supreme Court.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), sitting days shall be counted, whether or not they occur during the same session or during the same Parliament.

34. Where any question is referred to the Supreme Court under this Part, the President of the Legislative Council or the Speaker of the Legislative Assembly (as the case may be) shall transmit to the Principal Registrar of the Court a statement of the question upon which the determination of the Court is desired.

Question.

35. The Supreme Court, in relation to a reference under this Part, shall sit in open court, and shall have the powers conferred by the Electoral Act 1907 on the Court of Disputed Returns, so far as they are applicable.

Powers of the Court.

Representation.

36. The Chief Electoral Officer shall be entitled, and the Supreme Court may allow any other person, to be represented and heard upon the hearing of the reference.

- (b) will be encouraged or assisted to render himself, unable to vote or mentally incapable of voting at a referendum shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding $200 or imprisonment for 6 months.

(2) Subject to proof of the other elements of the offence, a person is guilty of an offence under subsection (1) notwithstanding that—

- (a) the other person was not rendered or did not render himself unable or incapable as mentioned therein; or
- (b) the other person did vote.

46. (1) Every person who—

Misleading
advertisements, etc.

- (a) prints, publishes, or distributes an advertisement or document containing a representation of a ballot paper, or a representation apparently intended to represent a ballot paper, and having thereon any directions intended or likely to mislead or improperly interfere with an elector in or in relation to the casting of his vote at a referendum; or
- (b) prints, publishes, or distributes an advertisement or document containing an untrue or incorrect statement intended or likely to mislead or improperly interfere with an elector in or in relation to the casting of his vote at a referendum, shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding $200.

(2) This section shall not prevent the printing, publishing, or distributing of an advertisement or document (not otherwise illegal) which contains instructions how to vote in any particular manner in connection with a referendum, if those instructions are not intended or likely to mislead any elector in or in relation to the casting of his vote.

Misconduct
at public meeting.

47. (1) A person who, at a public meeting to which this section applies, acts in a disorderly manner for the purpose of preventing the transaction of the business for which the meeting is held shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding $10.

(2) This section applies to any lawful public meeting held in relation to a referendum between the date of the issue of the writ for the referendum and the date of the return of the writ.

Advertisements relating to referendums.

48. (1) In this section "referendum notice" means notice, advertisement, handbill or pamphlet in relation to a referendum and intended or calculated to affect the result of the referendum.

(2) A person who publishes a referendum notice without the name and address of the person authorizing it being shown at the end of it shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding $200 or imprisonment for 6 months.

(3) A person who prints or publishes a printed referendum notice (other than an advertisement in a newspaper) without the name and place of business of the printer being printed at the end of it shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding $200 or imprisonment for 6 months.

(4) A person who distributes a referendum notice published in contravention of subsection (2) or (3) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding $100.

PART VIII—MISCELLANEOUS.

Regulations.

49. (1) The Governor may make regulations prescribing all matters that are required or permitted by this Act to be prescribed, or are necessary or convenient to be prescribed, for giving effect to the purposes of this Act.

(2) Where the time allowed to do an act in connection with a referendum is insufficient, and an alteration or extension of such time and any alteration of dates consequent thereon is expedient, the regulations may declare that such alteration shall be made, and thereupon the same shall be made and take effect accordingly.

50. (1) The Minister may, on the recommendation of the Chief Electoral Officer, appoint such temporary assistants as he may consider requisite for the purposes of a referendum.

Temporary assistance.

(2) The Public Service Act 1978 shall not apply to temporary assistants appointed under this section.

51. Section 16 of the Electoral Act 1907 shall apply to and in relation to appointments made for the purposes of a referendum.
