and re-enacted.

13. Section 33 of the principal Act is repealed and re-enacted as follows—

licence.

33. (1) Where a packet licence is granted for a vessel not ordinarily engaged in the business of carrying passengers occupying accommodation in the vessel overnight or for an aircraft, the licence authorises the master or captain of the vessel or aircraft to sell and supply liquor, on the vessel or aircraft,—

- (a) during scheduled hours on any day other than Christmas Day, Good Friday or Anzac Day;
- (b) during such of the scheduled hours on Anzac Day as are after noon; and
- (c) in the case of such a vessel, if the licensee obtains a permit by virtue of subsection (4) of this section, during the hours and on the day and to the persons specified in the permit, after the vessel has left a berth or mooring, or the aircraft has left an airport or landing ground, and has proceeded on a passage or flight, for consumption on the vessel or aircraft, before remooring or relanding, only.

(2) In this section “scheduled hours” means such hours as the Court may from time to time by endorsement on the licence specify after consideration of the operating schedule of the vessel or aircraft.

(3) Where a packet licence is granted for a vessel that is ordinarily engaged in the business of carrying passengers occupying accommodation in the vessel overnight, the licence authorises the master of that vessel to sell and supply liquor at any time to any passenger on board the vessel for consumption on the vessel.

(4) The Court, may on the application of the proprietor of a vessel referred to in subsection (1) of this section, issue a permit authorising the master of the vessel to sell and supply liquor as provided in paragraph (c) of subsection (1) of this section, but the Court shall not issue such a permit unless it is satisfied that, during the hours on the day for which the permit is to be issued, the vessel will be engaged solely in carrying passengers having a common interest of a political, social, literary, sporting or like nature.

(5) The proprietor of a vessel or aircraft for which a packet licence is granted is the holder of the licence and the licence is not required to be transferred by reason only that the master or captain of the vessel or aircraft is changed. .
